AMARILLO

Anthony L. Shuman v. RND Phase 1 Owner LLC

No. 07-25-00326-CV · No. 07-25-00326-CV · Decided February 9, 2026

SUMMARY

The Seventh District Court of Appeals of Texas dismissed Anthony L. Shuman’s appeal for want of prosecution. The court concluded that dismissal was warranted because Shuman, proceeding pro se, failed to file his appellate brief after receiving notice of the potential dismissal.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the appeal should be dismissed for want of prosecution when appellant failed to file an appellate brief after notice and an opportunity to cure the default.

HOLDINGS

1. The appeal must be dismissed for want of prosecution because appellant failed to file his brief and did not respond to the court's notice providing an opportunity to cure the omission.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal for want of prosecution.” (2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Anthony L. Shuman, proceeding pro se, appealed from a judgment of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Denton County. His appellate brief was due January 8, 2026, but he did not file it, and he did not respond after the appellate court warned that the appeal could be dismissed if a brief was not received by January 26, 2026.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal originated in the County Court at Law No. 2 of Denton County, Texas, and was transferred from the Second Court of Appeals to the Seventh District pursuant to the Texas Supreme Court's docket-equalization authority. After appellant failed to file his brief by the deadline, the court notified him that the appeal could be dismissed if no brief was received; appellant neither filed a brief nor communicated further with the court.
