

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Ismael Rico, Maria Rico, Jorge Duenas, and Isabel Contreras a/k/a Isabel Duenas v. Harris County Municipal Utility District No. 540

No. 01-20-00804-CV · No. No. 01-20-00804-CV · Decided January 28, 2021

SUMMARY

The First Court of Appeals of Texas construed the appellants' letter as a motion to dismiss their appeal. Because no other party had appealed, no opinion had issued, and no opposition was filed, the court granted the motion, dismissed the appeal, and dismissed all pending motions as moot.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appellants' letter should be construed as a motion to dismiss the appeal.

2. Whether the court should dismiss the appeal when the appellants sought dismissal, no other party had filed a notice of appeal, and no opinion had issued.
3. Whether pending motions should be dismissed as moot following dismissal of the appeal.

HOLDINGS

1. The court construed the appellants' letter explaining the filing error as a motion to dismiss the appeal.
2. The court granted the motion and dismissed the appeal.
3. All pending motions were dismissed as moot.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The appellants filed an appeal pursuant to section 21.018 of the Texas Property Code. They subsequently explained that the appeal should have been filed in Harris County Court at Law No. 2 and sought dismissal. No other party filed a notice of appeal, and the appellate court had not issued an opinion.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Appellants filed an appeal under section 21.018 of the Texas Property Code. They later filed a letter construed by the court as a motion to dismiss, stating that the appeal should have been filed in the trial court identified in the record. No other party filed a notice of appeal, no opinion had issued, and no party opposed the motion. The court granted the motion, dismissed the appeal, and dismissed all pending motions as moot.

DISPOSITION

dismissed
