Jimison v. Wilson

106 Ohio St. 3d 342 · Decided October 12, 2005

SUMMARY

The Ohio Supreme Court affirmed the dismissal of Eric A. Jimison's habeas corpus petition challenging his imprisonment following violations of community-control sanctions. The court held that alleged sentencing-notification errors were not cognizable in habeas corpus, could be addressed through ordinary appellate or post-conviction remedies, and were not entitled to retroactive application of intervening precedent.
