QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the complaint should be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute when the plaintiff failed to update his address after mail was returned following his release from incarceration.

HOLDINGS

1. The magistrate judge recommended that the complaint be dismissed without prejudice, sua sponte, for failure to prosecute under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and the court's inherent power to control its docket after the plaintiff failed to provide an updated address.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Accordingly; IT IS RECOMMENDED that this complaint be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE, sua sponte, for failure to prosecute, pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as interpreted by the court and under the court's inherent power to control its own docket.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Damiena Trumel Heard filed a pro se civil-rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 while incarcerated at the Bossier Maximum Security Center. The court granted his motion to proceed in forma pauperis, but the order was returned by the Postal Service after his release. Heard did not provide the court with a new address, leaving the court unable to communicate with him.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed the complaint on November 7, 2025, while incarcerated. The court granted in forma pauperis status on January 8, 2026, but the order was returned as undeliverable on January 16, 2026, marked "RETURN TO SENDER -released." Plaintiff did not inform the court of a new address. The magistrate judge issued this report and recommendation recommending dismissal without prejudice and advised the parties of their right to object under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) and Rule 72(b).
