QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether Plaintiff should receive $604.41 in attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act.
- How the awarded fees should be paid in light of the Treasury Offset Program and any qualifying debt owed by Plaintiff.

HOLDINGS

1. Plaintiff is awarded $604.41 in attorney fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412.
2. Payment of the EAJA fee award is subject to verification of whether Plaintiff has a debt qualifying for offset under the Treasury Offset Program; if no such debt exists, payment may be made to Plaintiff's attorney, while any remaining amount after an offset is payable to Plaintiff.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The court awarded Plaintiff $604.41 in attorney fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act. The order addressed payment of those fees through Plaintiff's attorney, subject to verification of whether Plaintiff had a debt eligible for offset under the Treasury Offset Program. If no qualifying debt existed, payment would be made to Plaintiff's attorney; if a debt existed, any remaining funds after offset would be payable to Plaintiff.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

After Plaintiff's Social Security litigation, the district court entered an order awarding Plaintiff $604.41 in attorney fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act. The order directed that payment be subject to verification of any qualifying federal debt and possible offset under the Treasury Offset Program.
