

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA, LAKE CHARLES DIVISION

Abraham Salomon Rodriguez v. Judge James D. Cain, Jr. and Felipe
Martinez Jr.

Rodriguez · No. 2:24-CV-00535 · Decided April 29, 2026

SUMMARY

The court dismissed Abraham Salomon Rodriguez’s 28 U.S.C. § 2241 petition without prejudice for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction. Because Rodriguez was released from Bureau of Prisons custody, the court determined that his challenge to sentence computation and request for speedier release were moot.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana, Lake Charles Division
JURISDICTION	United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana, Lake Charles Division
DECIDED	April 29, 2026
DOCKET	2:24-CV-00535
DISPOSITION	dismissed
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Pro se petitioner sought habeas relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 challenging the computation of his sentence and seeking speedier release. The district court dismissed the petition without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction after learning that petitioner had been released from custody.
STANDARD OF REVIEW	The court applied Article III's case-or-controversy requirement and reviewed whether the petition remained justiciable in light of the petitioner's release.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	Unknown; memorandum order with no reporter citation or stated precedential designation.
PARTIES	Abraham Salomon Rodriguez v. Judge James D. Cain, Jr., Felipe Martinez Jr.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Rodriguez's § 2241 petition seeking speedier release became moot after his release from federal custody.
2. Whether the district court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the moot petition.

HOLDINGS

1. Rodriguez's § 2241 claim was moot because he had been released from Bureau of Prisons custody and the court could no longer grant the requested relief.
2. Because the controversy was moot, the district court lacked subject matter jurisdiction and dismissed the petition without prejudice.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The case-or-controversy requirement “subsists through all stages of federal judicial proceedings, trial and appellate.””

“Because Rodriguez was released from BOP custody, his § 2241 claim is moot. The Court can no longer grant the relief requested.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Rodriguez was incarcerated at the Federal Correctional Institution in Oakdale, Louisiana when he filed a § 2241 petition challenging the computation of his sentence and seeking speedier release. The Bureau of Prisons reported that Rodriguez was released from custody on March 12, 2025, leaving the court unable to grant the requested relief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Rodriguez filed a § 2241 petition while imprisoned at the Federal Correctional Institution in Oakdale, Louisiana. The Bureau of Prisons reported that he was released on March 12, 2025. The district court concluded that his request for release was moot and dismissed the petition without prejudice for lack of jurisdiction.
