

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

In re Disbarment of Powell

In re Disbarment of Powell, 493 U.S. 1039 (1990) · Decided January 16, 1990

SUMMARY

Topics: Attorney discipline; disbarment; Supreme Court jurisdiction over attorney conduct.

Holding: The Supreme Court entered an order of disbarment against attorney Powell in a per curiam decision, exercising its inherent authority to regulate the legal profession.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Supreme Court of the United States
JURISDICTION	Federal
DECIDED	January 16, 1990
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Direct disbarment order from the Supreme Court.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	published

TOPICS

sanctions

civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

attorney discipline

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the respondent should be disbarred

HOLDINGS

- The Court entered an order of disbarment.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Supreme Court entered an order disbarring the respondent.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Court entered an order of disbarment. Earlier order at 493 U.S. 886.

DISPOSITION

other

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

Disbarment entered. [For earlier order herein, see ante, p. 886.]