

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS, CORPUS CHRISTI DIVISION

Jose Angel Valadez Diaz v. Eric Guerrero

Diaz · No. 2:26-CV-00018 · Decided January 13, 2026

SUMMARY

The court transfers a habeas action under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 from the Corpus Christi Division to the McAllen Division of the Southern District of Texas. Because the petitioner was convicted in Hidalgo County, the court concludes that the McAllen Division is more convenient and that transfer serves the interests of justice. Pending motions are denied as moot and may be renewed after transfer.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the § 2254 habeas action should be transferred from the Corpus Christi Division to the McAllen Division of the Southern District of Texas because the petitioner was convicted there and the relevant records and witnesses are located there.

HOLDINGS

1. A § 2254 habeas action may be transferred to the federal district or division in which the state court that convicted and sentenced the petitioner was located when transfer would be more convenient and further the interests of justice.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Because Petitioner was convicted in Hidalgo County, it is more convenient and would further the interests of justice for this action to be handled in the McAllen Division of the Southern District of Texas.” (at 1)

“Accordingly, it is ORDERED that this case be transferred to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, McAllen Division.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Petitioner is a Texas state prisoner incarcerated at the Garza West Unit in Beeville, Texas, which is located in Bee County. He challenges convictions entered in Hidalgo County on December 9, 2022, seeking relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The court found that the conviction records and the prosecution and defense attorneys were located in the McAllen Division.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner filed the habeas action on January 12, 2026, while incarcerated in Bee County, within the Corpus Christi Division. His challenged convictions were entered in Hidalgo County, within the McAllen Division. The court transferred the case to the McAllen Division and denied all pending motions as moot, subject to renewal after transfer.
