

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS AT HOUSTON

O.D. Van Duren, Jr. v. State

Van Duren v. State · No. 01-13-00103-CR · Decided February 20, 2014

SUMMARY

The Texas Court of Appeals for the First District of Houston granted the appellant's motion concerning his appellate brief. The court suspended the requirement to file five copies under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.3(a)(1) and deemed the appellant's pro se brief to be his appellate brief.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS AT HOUSTON ORDER ON MOTION Cause number: 01-13-00103-CR Style: O.D. VanDuren v The State of Texas Date motion filed: January 29, 2014 Party filing motion: Appellant Document to be filed: Appellant's Brief Ordered that motion is: Granted If document is to be filed, document due: The Clerk is instructed to file the document as of the date of this order Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Court will not grant additional motions to extend time Denied Dismissed (e.g., want of jurisdiction, moot) On January 29, 2014, appellant, O.D.

VanDuren, filed a "Motion Relating to Appellant's Brief" requesting that this Court (1) suspend the requirement that appellant file copies of his appellant's brief and (2) "accept his pro se brief as his Appellate Brief." The motion is granted.

The requirement that appellant file five copies of his appellant's brief with this Court under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.3(a)(1) is suspended. See TEX. R. APP. P. 2. Appellant's pro se brief is deemed to be his appellant's brief. Judge's signature: /s/ Justice Jane Bland Acting individually Acting for the Court Panel consists of _____.

Date: February 20, 2014 November 7, 2008 Revision