QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the evidence was legally sufficient to support Bihl's conviction for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

HOLDINGS

1. The evidence was legally sufficient for a rational jury to find beyond a reasonable doubt that Bihl committed aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The evidence concerned an altercation between Bihl and the complainant, Rivera, during which Bihl used a knife or other deadly weapon and caused injury. The jury heard conflicting evidence concerning the incident but resolved those conflicts against Bihl and found the charged offense proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A Travis County district court entered a judgment finding Bihl guilty of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and sentenced him to thirty years' imprisonment. Bihl challenged the sufficiency of the evidence supporting the conviction, and the Court of Appeals affirmed.
