

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, SIXTH APPELLATE DISTRICT AT TEXARKANA

In re Bill Ater and Cody Wyrick

No. 06-21-00095-CV · No. 06-21-00095-CV · Decided October 6, 2021

SUMMARY

The Court of Appeals for the Sixth Appellate District of Texas at Texarkana granted emergency temporary relief in an original mandamus proceeding brought by Bill Ater and Cody Wyrick. The court stayed the trial court's October 1, 2021, orders compelling the relators to disclose alleged attorney-client privileged communications pending a ruling on the mandamus petition.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

In The Court of Appeals Sixth Appellate District of Texas at Texarkana No. 06-21-00095-CV IN RE BILL ATER AND CODY WYRICK Original Mandamus Proceeding Before Morriss, C.J., Burgess and Stevens, JJ. ORDER On October 5, 2021, Bill Ater and Cody Wyrick (collectively Relators) filed a motion for emergency relief pending a decision by this Court on their petition for a writ of mandamus.

The motion for emergency relief asks this Court to stay the trial court's October 1, 2021, orders compelling Relators to, among other things, divulge alleged attorney-client privileged communications in depositions beginning October 6 at 11:00 a.m. This Court has asked real parties in interest to provide a response to Relators' petition for a writ of mandamus.

After reviewing Relators' motion for emergency relief, this Court is of the opinion that the temporary relief requested should be granted and that the October 1, 2021, orders of the trial court referenced above should be stayed pending the ruling of this Court on Relators' petition for a writ of mandamus.

Therefore, the trial court's October 1, 2021, orders are hereby stayed pending the ruling of this Court on the mandamus petition before us in this case. IT IS SO ORDERED. BY THE COURT
