CALIFORNIA

Akika Parker v. Sacramento, et al.

No. 2:24-cv-01195-EFB (PC) · No. No. 2:24-cv-01195-EFB (PC) · Decided April 28, 2025

SUMMARY

The court recommends dismissing Akika Parker’s action without prejudice because she failed to comply with an order requiring a completed in forma pauperis application and trust account statement or an amended complaint. The document also orders random assignment of a district judge and advises that objections to the findings and recommendations may be filed within fourteen days.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the action should be dismissed without prejudice under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and Local Rule 110 because plaintiff failed to comply with a court order.

2. Whether service of the court's order was effective when the order was served at plaintiff's address of record but returned.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“It is the plaintiff’s responsibility to keep the court apprised of a current address at all times.” (at 1)

“Pursuant to Local Rule 182(f), service of documents at the record address of the party is fully effective.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The court had ordered Akika Parker to submit a completed in forma pauperis application and trust account statement or an amended complaint clarifying that Parker was not then detained in connection with a criminal offense. Parker did not respond within the prescribed thirty-day period, and the court noted that service was effective at the address on record even though the order appeared to have been returned.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The court previously ordered plaintiff to file a completed in forma pauperis application and trust account statement or an amended complaint clarifying plaintiff's detention status. Plaintiff did not respond within the thirty-day period. The magistrate judge ordered random assignment of a district judge and recommended dismissal without prejudice, subject to objections under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).
