

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, TWELFTH COURT OF APPEALS

In re Donald Adkins

In re Adkins · No. 12-15-00180-CR · Decided October 28, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a pro se filing by Donald Adkins in an original mandamus proceeding before the Texas Twelfth Court of Appeals. The filing requests correction of the clerk's description of a prior motion, changing “should not” to “should” to accurately reflect the requested relief.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Court of Appeals of Texas, Twelfth Court of Appeals
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	October 28, 2015
DOCKET	12-15-00180-CR
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Original proceeding in which pro se relator Donald Adkins submitted a motion seeking correction of the clerk's description of his mandamus filing.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	unknown

TOPICS

appellate procedure

civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

appellate procedure

civil procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Donald Adkins, proceeding pro se, submitted a mandamus-related motion to the Twelfth Court of Appeals. After the clerk notified him that the filing had been recorded as a motion asking why the court should not grant mandamus, Adkins asserted that the filing instead asked why the court should grant mandamus and requested correction of the record.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Adkins filed a petitioning motion concerning why the court should grant his petition for mandamus. The clerk's notice reportedly described the filing as asking why the court should not grant mandamus, and Adkins requested that the record be corrected by changing "should not" to "should."

DISPOSITION

other