In re Adkins · No. 12-15-00180-CR · Decided October 28, 2015

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

In The Court Of Appeals Twelfth Court Of Appeals In Re: Donald Adkins Original Proceeding Relator, Pro-se Re: Case # 12-15-00180-CR 3ber 23, 2015 To: The Clerk of the Court REC'D IN COURT OF APPEAL^ 12th Court of Appeals District 1517 W. Front Street Suite 354 Tyler, Texas 75702 PAM ESTES, CLER* Dear Clerk, On or about Friday, October 16, 2015, the Court filed the Relator's "Petitioning Motion to show cause why this Court should grant Relator's Petition for Mandamus by way of Leave of Court."

The Office of the Clerk responded to this Relator stating that his "Motioa to show cause why this Court should not grant Relator's Petition for Mandamus by way of Leave of Court" has this day been recieved and filed in the above referenced case. An error exist..The Relator's Petition - Motion title states "Relator's Petitioning Motion to show cause why this Court should grant Relator's Petition for Mandamus by way of Leave of Court", 'Attention to': "should grant".

In the Clerk of this Court's Notice to Relator's Motion being filed, the Clerk stated his "Motion to show cause why this Court should "not" grant Relator's Petion for Mandamus..et.cetra." The Relator understands easy made mistakes and only request that a correction of Record be made and that the "should not" be changed to "should". Respectfully Submitted, Donald Adkins # 1792685 Relator, In Pro-se Ramsey I Unit 1100 F.M.
