QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appellant's signed motion to voluntarily dismiss the appeal should be granted under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.2(a).

HOLDINGS

1. A signed motion by the appellant to voluntarily dismiss the appeal was granted under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.2(a), and the appeal was dismissed.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Municipal Court of Copperas Cove entered a Community Service Order against Gabryelle Daniels on September 17, 2025. Daniels appealed the order and later signed and filed a motion to voluntarily dismiss the appeal.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Municipal Court of Copperas Cove imposed and signed a Community Service Order on September 17, 2025. Daniels appealed and, on December 2, 2025, moved to voluntarily dismiss the appeal. The Court of Appeals granted the motion and dismissed the appeal, after notifying Daniels that it appeared not to have jurisdiction over an appeal from municipal court.

DISPOSITION

dismissed

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

Court of Appeals Tenth Appellate District of Texas 10-25-00415-CR Gabryelle Daniels, Appellant v. The State of Texas, Appellee On appeal from the Municipal Court of Copperas Cove, Texas Judge Bill Price, presiding Trial Court Cause No. E00E459-1 JUSTICE SMITH delivered the opinion of the Court. MEMORANDUM OPINION Gabryelle Daniels appealed the trial court's Community Service Order that was imposed and signed on September 17, 2025.

On December 2, 2025, Daniels filed a motion to voluntarily dismiss the appeal. Daniels has signed the motion to dismiss. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.2(a).
