QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the appellate court should extend the existing abatement of the appeal to allow the trial court additional time to render a decision after the May 28, 2026 hearing.

HOLDINGS

1. The court granted Tiffanie O'Brien's motion and abated the appeal for an additional 30 days to allow the trial court more time to render its decision.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“We grant Tiffanie’s motion and abate the appeal for an additional 30 days to allow the trial court more time to render its decision.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The trial court was considering Tiffanie O'Brien's motion to modify. After the appellate court confirmed the trial court's jurisdiction to consider that motion, the trial court conducted another hearing on May 28, 2026 but had not yet rendered its decision when the appellate court considered the motion to extend abatement.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the 53rd District Court of Travis County. The appellate court previously abated the appeal to allow the trial court to conduct another hearing in light of the appellate court's confirmation of the trial court's jurisdiction to consider Tiffanie's motion to modify under Subsections 109.001(b-3) and (b-4). After the May 28, 2026 hearing, Tiffanie submitted a status report and requested an additional abatement period so the trial court could render its decision. The court granted the request and abated the appeal for an additional 30 days.

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The appeal is abated for an additional 30 days to allow the trial court to render its decision. Tiffanie O'Brien must submit, on or before July 24, 2026, a motion to dismiss the appeal, a motion to reinstate the appeal, or a status report regarding the trial court's ruling accompanied by a motion to extend the abatement.
