

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, APPELLATE DIVISION, FOURTH JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

People v. Burney

2026 NY Slip Op 04101 (4th Dep't 2026) · No. 465 KA 24-01368 · Decided June 26, 2026

SUMMARY

The Appellate Division, Fourth Department, reviewed a judgment convicting Khalil Burney upon his guilty plea to attempted criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree. Because the sentencing transcript reflected a twelve-year prison sentence while the certificate of conviction reflected a two-year sentence, the court vacated the sentence and remitted the matter for resentencing, affirming the judgment as modified.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the discrepancy between the sentence pronounced in open court and the sentence reflected on the certificate of conviction required correction of the judgment.
2. Whether the sentence should be vacated and the matter remitted for resentencing.

HOLDINGS

1. A court has inherent power to correct its records when the correction concerns a clerical mistake or conforms the record to the truth; because the sentencing transcript and certificate of conviction reflected materially different sentences, the sentence had to be vacated and the matter remitted for resentencing.

KEY QUOTATIONS

*"It is well settled that courts have the " 'inherent power to correct their records, where the correction relates to mistakes, or errors, which may be termed clerical in their nature, or where it is made in order to conform the record to the truth' " " ([1])

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendant pleaded guilty to attempted criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree under Penal Law §§ 110.00 and 265.03(3). At sentencing, County Court pronounced a prison sentence of twelve years, but the certificate of conviction reflected a two-year prison sentence.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Erie County Court convicted defendant upon his guilty plea and rendered judgment on February 10, 2023. On appeal, the Appellate Division found a discrepancy between the sentence pronounced in the sentencing transcript and the sentence recorded on the certificate of conviction, vacated the sentence, affirmed the judgment as modified, and remitted for resentencing.

DISPOSITION

remanded

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The matter is remitted to Erie County Court for resentencing, and the judgment is modified by vacating the sentence. The judgment is otherwise affirmed.
