In re Alicia Marie Richards

No. 8:25-cv-02304-SB (C.D. Cal. Dec. 10, 2025) · No. 8:25-cv-02304-SB · Decided December 10, 2025

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Central District of California dismissed Alicia Marie Richards and Lawrence Remsen’s appeal from several bankruptcy court orders. The court dismissed the appeal because the appellants failed to pay the filing fee and failed to submit required bankruptcy appellate documents.

OPINION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA Case No. 8:25-cv-02304-SB IN RE ALICIA MARIE RICHARDS ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL Bankruptcy No: 8:21-bk-10635-SC On October 11, 2025, Alicia Marie Richards and Lawrence Remsen filed this appeal challenging bankruptcy court orders (1) approving final professional fees and expenses; (2) approving the estate trustee’s final report and application for fees; (3) approving September 2022 and May 2023 applications for interim fees and expenses; (4) granting the trustee’s application to employ a general counsel; (5) authorizing interim fee distributions in December 2024; (6) denying a motion to remove the trustee; (7) denying a motion to strike a portion of the trustee’s opposition to the removal motion; and (8) approving the trustee’s interim report and authorizing interim fee distributions in January 2025.¹ The bankruptcy court issued a deficiency notice on October 11, 2025, stating that Appellants had not paid the filing fee for this appeal.
