QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether venue was proper in the Eastern District of California when the claim arose in San Mateo County.

2. Whether the action should be transferred to the Northern District of California in the interest of justice under 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

HOLDINGS

1. Venue was improper in the Eastern District of California because the claim arose in San Mateo County, which is located in the Northern District of California.
2. The action should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in the interest of justice.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“In this case, the claim arose in San Mateo County, which is in the Northern District of California. Therefore, plaintiff’s claim should have been filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.” (at 1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding without counsel, brought a civil-rights action against A1 Towing and other defendants. The opinion states that the claim arose in San Mateo County, California. San Mateo County lies within the Northern District of California, rather than the Eastern District where the action was filed.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed the action in the Eastern District of California. Because the claim arose in San Mateo County, the court concluded that the Northern District of California was the proper venue and transferred the matter there in the interest of justice under 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

DISPOSITION

remanded

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The matter is transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.
