

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

Mubashar Hassan v. Pamela Bondi, et al.

Hassan · No. C25-2559-JHC-MLP · Decided December 15, 2025

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Western District of Washington grants Mubashar Hassan’s motion for appointment of counsel in a federal habeas action under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. The court finds that the case may involve issues governed by Zadvydas v. Davis and that the complexity of the issues and the interests of justice warrant appointed counsel. The Federal Public Defender is appointed to represent Hassan.

PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether counsel should be appointed for Petitioner in this § 2241 habeas action because the case involves complex issues, the interests of justice require representation, and Petitioner is financially eligible.

HOLDINGS

1. Appointment of counsel was warranted because the petition presented complex issues potentially governed by Zadvydas v. Davis, the interests of justice required counsel, and Petitioner demonstrated the financial eligibility required by statute.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Because of the complex issues involved in this case, the interests of justice require that counsel be appointed for Petitioner.” (at 1-2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Mubashar Hassan filed a federal habeas action under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. His petition indicated that the case potentially fell within the class of cases governed by Zadvydas v. Davis, involving complex issues concerning detention. Hassan also submitted an in forma pauperis application demonstrating financial eligibility for appointed counsel.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Federal Public Defender's Office filed the proposed petition and related motions on behalf of Mubashar Hassan. The district court considered the motion for appointment of counsel, Petitioner's financial eligibility, and the record, then granted the motion and appointed the Federal Public Defender to represent Petitioner.
