QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Florida Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.350 should be amended to clarify the parties who may serve responses to requests for production and the applicable response period.

HOLDINGS

1. Rule 12.350 should be amended as proposed by the Florida Bar's Family Law Rules Committee to add "respondent or third-party" before "defendant" in subdivision (b).

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The amendments shall become effective July 1, 2022, at 12:01 a.m.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Florida Bar's Family Law Rules Committee proposed amendments to Rule 12.350 to clarify that the rule accurately reflects the parties who may appear in family law cases. The proposed amendment added the words "respondent or third-party" before "defendant" in subdivision (b), thereby extending the rule's response-time provision to respondent and third-party defendants. No comments were received during either publication period.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Florida Bar's Family Law Rules Committee submitted a report proposing amendments to Rule 12.350. The committee and the Florida Bar's Board of Governors approved the proposals, and the proposals were published for comment without receiving any comments. The Supreme Court of Florida approved and adopted the amendments.
