

LOUISIANA COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

Jagjit Singh Lalli v. Manpreet Kaur Randhawa

No. 2025 CW 1336 (La. Ct. App. 2026) · No. 2025 CW 1336 · Decided January 8, 2026

SUMMARY

The Louisiana Court of Appeal, First Circuit declined to consider Jagjit Singh Lalli’s supervisory writ application because it lacked multiple documents required by the Uniform Rules of Louisiana Courts of Appeal. The court stated that supplementation or rehearing would not be considered and set a deadline for filing any new, complete application.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the court should consider a supervisory-writ application that failed to include the documents required by the Uniform Rules of Louisiana Courts of Appeal.

HOLDINGS

1. The court would not consider the writ application because it failed to include the required judgment or ruling and other pertinent documentation specified by Rule 4-5(C) of the Uniform Rules of Louisiana Courts of Appeal.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“WRIT NOT CONSIDERED.”

“Supplementation of this writ application and/or an application for rehearing will not be considered.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The writ application arose from a custody-related proceeding in the Twenty-Third Judicial District Court for Ascension Parish. The application did not include the trial-court judgment, order, or ruling; any written reasons; the pleadings supporting the ruling; prior custody judgments; relevant opposition materials and attachments; pertinent court minutes; or the notice of intent and return-date order.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Jagjit Singh Lalli applied for supervisory writs concerning a ruling of the Twenty-Third Judicial District Court in a custody matter. The Louisiana Court of Appeal, First Circuit did not consider the writ application because it omitted required portions of the record and supporting documentation.
