

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. Michael Angelo Dixon Jr.

Commonwealth v. Dixon · No. Nos. 39 and 40 MAP 2025 · Decided September 8, 2025

SUMMARY

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Middle District, quashed the Notices of Appeal filed by Michael Angelo Dixon Jr. in two related matters. The court cited 42 Pa.C.S. § 722 and Pennsylvania Rule of Appellate Procedure 341(b) concerning direct appealability and final orders.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA MIDDLE DISTRICT COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,; No. 39 MAP 2025 Appellee: v.: MICHAEL ANGELO DIXON JR.,; Appellant: COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,; No. 40 MAP 2025 Appellee: v.: MICHAEL ANGELO DIXON JR.,; Appellant: ORDER PER CURIAM AND NOW, this 8th day of September, 2025, the Notices of Appeal are QUASHED. See 42 Pa.C.S. § 722 (delineating the type of common pleas court orders that may be appealed directly to this Court); Pa.R.A.P.

341(b) (defining final orders).