

TENTH COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS

Virginia Adams v. The State of Texas

No. 10-21-00086-CR (Tex. App.—Waco Jan. 14, 2022) · No. 10-21-00086-CR · Decided January 14, 2022

OPINION

Virginia Adams v. the State of Texas

PER CURIAM.

IN THE

TENTH COURT OF APPEALS

No. 10-21-00086-CR

VIRGINIA ADAMS,

Appellant v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,

Appellee From the 361st District Court Brazos County, Texas Trial Court No. 18-04769-CRF-361

ABATEMENT ORDER

Virginia Adams has appealed her conviction and sentence. Adams' appellate attorney has filed an Anders brief. This Court issued a letter on January 3, 2022 notifying Adams of her right to review the record and to file a written response to the Anders brief. On the same date, the Court received a letter from Adams requesting appointment of a new attorney. Adams expresses dissatisfaction with her appellate attorney's representation. Considering Adams' allegations, we abate this case to the trial court for a determination of whether Adams is entitled to appointment of new counsel. The trial court shall hold a hearing on Adams' request within thirty (30) days from the date of this Order. If the trial court determines that Adams is entitled to a new attorney, the trial court shall notify this Court of the identity of Adams' new attorney within ten (10) days.

PER CURIAM

Before Chief Justice Gray, Justice Johnson, and Justice Wright 1 Abatement order Order delivered and filed January 14, 2022
