QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether an application for a writ of certiorari filed before the Intermediate Court of Appeals files its Judgment on Appeal is timely under Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 40.1(a).

HOLDINGS

1. An application for a writ of certiorari filed before the Intermediate Court of Appeals files its Judgment on Appeal is premature and must be dismissed without prejudice to refiling after the judgment is filed, within the period specified by Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 40.1(a).

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The application shall be filed within thirty days after the filing of the intermediate court of appeals’ judgment on appeal or dismissal order, unless the time for filing the application is extended in accordance with this rule.” (2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The material facts concern the timing of Petitioners’ application for a writ of certiorari. Petitioners filed the application before the Intermediate Court of Appeals issued its Judgment on Appeal.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Intermediate Court of Appeals had not yet filed its Judgment on Appeal when Petitioners filed their application for writ of certiorari on January 6, 2026. The ICA filed its Judgment on Appeal on January 7, 2026, so the Supreme Court dismissed the premature application without prejudice to refiling within the period provided by Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 40.1(a).

DISPOSITION

dismissed

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

None. The dismissal was without prejudice to refiling the application pursuant to Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 40.1(a).
