

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Lettieri v. Federal Public Defenders

Lettieri · No. 25-cv-11228-PGL · Decided December 3, 2025

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts orders the Clerk to draw the case to a district judge. The referral is made so a district judge can review the magistrate judge's prior denial, without prejudice, of the plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis, following the plaintiff's objection.

OPINION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS DAVID C. LETTIERI, Plaintiff, v. No. 25-cv-11228-PGL FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS, Defendants. ORDER TO DRAW CASE TO DISTRICT JUDGE LEVENSON, U.S.M.J. On September 5, 2025, I entered an Order (Docket No. 7) denying, without prejudice, Plaintiff's Motion (Docket No. 5) for leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

Plaintiff has filed an Objection (Docket No. 9) to my Order. Plaintiff is entitled to review of my order by a District Judge. See generally Prater v. Dep't of Corr., 76 F.4th 184, 195-98 (3d Cir. 2023). In order to effect such review, I hereby ORDER to the Clerk of the Court to draw this case to a District Judge for purposes of considering my order (Docket No. 7).

SO ORDERED. /s Paul G. Levenson Paul G. Levenson U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE Dated: December 3, 2025
