QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the supplemental initial brief should be treated as an amended initial brief and accepted for consideration.
- Whether the circuit court's judgment should be affirmed.

HOLDINGS

1. The court granted the motion for leave to supplement to the extent that it treated the supplemental initial brief as an amended initial brief and accepted it for consideration.
2. The circuit court's judgment was affirmed.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion contains no substantive factual discussion. It identifies the appeal as arising from proceedings in the Circuit Court for Sarasota County and concerns the acceptance and consideration of an amended initial brief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Williams appealed from the Circuit Court for Sarasota County. The appellate court vacated its opinion issued May 15, 2026, granted Williams's motion for leave to supplement the initial brief to the extent the supplemental brief was treated as an amended initial brief, accepted and considered the amended brief, and affirmed.

DISPOSITION
