

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS, AUSTIN DIVISION

Chioma Okoro and Jerome Okoro v. State of Texas, Governor Greg Abbott, and Secretary of State

No. 1:25-CV-1526-RP · No. 1:25-CV-1526-RP · Decided December 10, 2025

SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Western District of Texas adopted a magistrate judge’s report and recommendation and dismissed Chioma Okoro’s complaint without prejudice as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e). The court also imposed a pre-filing bar requiring Okoro to obtain prior judicial approval before filing future complaints in the district.

PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the magistrate judge's recommendation should be accepted when no timely objections were filed and the record showed no clear error.
2. Whether Plaintiff's complaint should be dismissed without prejudice as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e).
3. Whether Plaintiff should be barred from filing future complaints in the Western District of Texas without prior judicial approval based on her history of frivolous litigation.

HOLDINGS

1. When no timely objections are filed to a magistrate judge's report and recommendation, the district court reviews the recommendation for clear error rather than conducting de novo review.
2. The complaint is dismissed without prejudice as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e).
3. Plaintiff is barred from filing future complaints in the Western District of Texas without obtaining prior approval from a district or magistrate judge of that court.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Because Plaintiff has not filed timely objections, the Court reviews the report and recommendation for clear error.” (Order)

“Plaintiff's complaint, (Dkt. 1), is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE as frivolous.” (Order)

“Plaintiff Chioma Okoro is BARRED from filing future complaints in the Western District of Texas without obtaining prior approval from a district or magistrate judge of this Court.” (Order)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Chioma Okoro filed a complaint and an application to proceed in forma pauperis, naming herself and Jerome Okoro as plaintiffs, although only Chioma signed the filings. The court noted that Plaintiff had previously filed four cases that had been dismissed as frivolous and had previously been warned that further frivolous litigation could result in a pre-filing bar. The court also noted that Plaintiff was on the State of Texas's list of vexatious litigants and was subject to a pre-filing order in Travis County.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Magistrate Judge Susan Hightower issued a report and recommendation on November 6, 2025, concerning Chioma Okoro's complaint and application to proceed in forma pauperis. Because Plaintiff filed no timely objections, the district court reviewed the recommendation for clear error, found none, adopted it, dismissed the complaint without prejudice as frivolous, and imposed a pre-filing bar requiring prior judicial approval for future complaints in the Western District of Texas.

DISPOSITION

dismissed
