

SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

In re Amendments to the Florida Probate Rules

607 So. 2d 1306 (Fla. 1992) · Decided September 24, 1992

SUMMARY

The Florida Supreme Court approves amendments to the Florida Probate Rules proposed in the Probate Rules Committee's quadrennial report. The amendments include changes addressing probate administration, fiduciary accounting, ancillary personal representatives, objections to claims, minors' claims, and expedited judicial intervention concerning medical treatment. The amendments were made effective January 1, 1993, at 12:01 a.m.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the Court should approve the Florida Probate Rules Committee's proposed quadrennial amendments.

2. Whether requiring a decedent's Social Security number on petitions for administration and caveats violates federal privacy law.
3. Whether the proposed rules should be amended to conform to the 1992 amendments to Florida probate and guardianship legislation.

HOLDINGS

1. The Court approved the amended report and the appended amendments to the Florida Probate Rules.
2. The requirements in Florida Probate Rules 5.200 and 5.260 that a decedent's Social Security number be included on specified filings do not violate federal law.
3. The amendments to the Florida Probate Rules become effective January 1, 1993, at 12:01 a.m.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Because the rules refer only to the social security number of the decedent, we conclude that the rules do not violate federal law.” (607 So. 2d at 1306)

“Having examined the committee’s report of proposed changes and the supplemental petition, and having heard oral argument on the matter, we approve the appended amendments to the Florida Probate Rules.” (607 So. 2d at 1307)

“The amendments shall become effective January 1, 1993, at 12:01 a.m.” (607 So. 2d at 1307)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Florida Probate Rules Committee proposed comprehensive quadrennial amendments, most of which were stylistic. The Court identified potential conflicts between several proposed rules and 1992 amendments to the Florida Probate Code and Florida Guardianship Law, prompting supplemental revisions. A single public comment challenged requirements that a decedent's Social Security number appear on certain probate filings as violating the Federal Privacy Act.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The committee submitted proposed amendments to the Florida Probate Rules. The proposals were submitted to the Board of Governors of The Florida Bar, published for public comment, and received unanimous approval from the Board. After oral argument identified conflicts between some proposed rules and 1992 amendments to Florida probate and guardianship legislation, the Court requested a supplemental amended report, which the committee filed and the Board unanimously approved.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

PER CURIAM. The Florida Probate Rules Committee petitions this Court to approve its quadrennial report of proposed changes to the Florida Probate Rules. We have jurisdiction under article V, section 2(a) of the Florida Constitution.

In its report, the rules committee proposes changes to each of the existing rules, with the exception of rules 5.610 and 5.705. The great majority of changes in the rules are stylistic. Pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.130(c), the proposed amendments were submitted to The Board of Governors of The Florida Bar.

The Board unanimously recommended approval. The proposed amendments were published for comment, and only one comment was filed. At oral argument, it was pointed out that certain 1992 amendments to the Florida Probate Code and the Florida Guardianship Law conflicted with some of the proposed rules. Those conflicts, although minimal, could mislead practitioners and the public.

Therefore, this Court requested that the committee make additional changes to the rules in order to harmonize them with the 1992 legislation. These changes were encompassed in an amended report filed by the committee. Rules 5.120, 5.200, 5.260, 5.690, and 5.695 were amended to conform to 1992 legislation.

The committee also revisited rule 5.900 and proposed clarifying amendments. As with the proposed rules contained in the original report, the amended rules were presented to and unanimously approved by The Board of Governors.

The only comment filed in this case suggests that the requirement that the decedent's social security number be placed on petitions for administration and on caveats violates the Federal Privacy Act. This requirement was added to rules 5.200 and 5.260 to conform to sections 733.202(2)(b) and 731.110(2) of the Florida Statutes (1991), as amended by chapter 92-200, Laws of Florida.

Because the rules refer only to the social security number of the decedent, we conclude that the rules do not violate federal law. Having examined the committee's report of proposed changes and the supplemental petition, and having heard oral argument on the matter, we approve the appended amendments to the Florida Probate Rules. While most of the changes are editorial, the amendments do include the following substantive changes.

In rule 5.200, the explanatory statement contained in subdivision (g), which requires a statement of the approximate value and nature of the assets of the estate, is deleted, since there is no longer a sliding scale *1307of filing fees based upon the value of the estate. Section 733.202, Florida Statutes (1991), already explains that a statement of the value and nature of the assets is necessary so the court can determine the amount of any bond.

In rule 5.240, subdivision (e), which was deleted effective October 1, 1991, is reinstated. The committee reconsidered the advisability of requiring a statement regarding creditors and determined that reinstatement is appropriate to emphasize the need for the personal representative to determine all known or reasonably ascertainable creditors.

The committee note explains that the statement is intended to provide evidence of satisfaction (or lack thereof) of the notice requirements set forth in Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478, 108 S.Ct. 1340, 99 L.Ed.2d 565 (1988). Rule 5.346 now makes mandatory, on and after January 1, 1994, the fiduciary accounting standards that were suggested, but not made mandatory, when rule 5.346 was adopted in 1988.

The committee note at that time stated it was the intention of the committee to recommend that the accounting standards become effective on January 1, 1993, at the end of the current four-year rules cycle. Since many of the committee members observed that the recommended model formats still were not generally in use, it was deemed appropriate to adopt the accounting standards on a mandatory basis at this time, but allow one additional year for the bench and bar to prepare for implementation of the forms.

In rule 5.400, subdivision (b)(5)(D) is added, recognizing that the personal representative in most instances needs to reserve funds to cover distribution costs and the final expenses of terminating the estate. In rule 5.470, subdivision (b)(1) is added, requiring notice or waiver from all persons whose entitlement to preference in appointment as ancillary personal representative is equal to or greater than the petitioner's.

This provision is consistent with the provisions of rule 5.201. Rule 5.496 is a new rule which implements the procedure found in section 733.-705, Florida Statutes (1991), for objecting to a claim. Subdivision (d) requires that the objection contain a statement that the claimant is limited to a period of thirty days from service of the objection within which to bring an action on the claim.

Rule 5.636 is a new rule which establishes procedures for settlement of minors' claims. This rule delineates the contents of the petition, to whom notice is to be given, the appointment of a guardian ad litem under certain circumstances, and the report of the guardian ad litem. Rule 5.900 is amended to clarify that a petition for expedited judicial intervention concerning medical treatment should include an allegation that the patient lacks the capacity to make the requisite medical treatment decision, and to require that the patient receive notice of the petition and hearing.

New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The committee notes are offered for explanation and guidance only and are not adopted as an official part of the rules. The amendments shall become effective January 1, 1993, at 12:01 a.m. It is so ordered. BARKETT, C.J., and OVERTON, McDonald, shaw, grimes, kogan and HARDING, JJ., concur.

RULE 5.010. SCOPE These rules govern the procedure in all probate and guardianship proceedings and shall, be known as the Florida Probate Rules and may be cited as FRRFla.Prob.R. Part I applies to all proceedings. Part II applies to probate alone, Part III applies to guardianship alone, and Part IV applies to expedited judicial intervention concerning medical treatment procedures.

The Florida Rules of Civil Procedure apply only as provided herein. Committee Notes In the opinion reported at 460 So.2d 906, the- Florida Supreme Court directed the Probate and Guardianship-Rules Committee to study the statutes and attempt to identify those portions of the Florida Pro*1308bate Code, the Florida Guardianship- Law-, and other statutes that contained procedural provisions. — When those procedural provisions were identified, the committee-was charged to promulgate rules incorporating those procedures,- The committee has-r-e-viewed the statutes and has found a substantial measure of procedure-that was contained only in-the statutes for which there-were no-corresponding rules. — The committee also determined that much of the procedure in the statutes already had a rule counterpart, New rules added, or prior rules amended; in 1988-to-add procedural matters previously found only in the-statutes are Rules 5,050, 5.122, 5.171, 5,180, 5.201, -5,23% 5.270, -5.2-75, 5.355, 5,360, 5.385, 5.386, 5.400, 5,440, 5,475, 5,490,- and 5,510, — With only one exception (see Rule 5.050), -the only portion of the statutes that has been reviewed in detail, and for-which rules have been created, is the Florida Probate-Code.

Other portions of the-statutes mentioned in the opinion cited-above remain for the next cycle of this committee to review, As the committee wrote rules to transfer the statutory procedure-into these rules, an attempt was made to write the rule without changing the meaning of the statute. — It was not possible or advisable to use the exact wording of the-statute in some-instances, and in those instances the commii> tee rewrote the statutory-language in the format-used in the rules-generally, — Even under those circumstances, the committee attempted to transfer the entire procedural portion of the statute without changing its meaning.

Where it was specifically intended in a few instances to add to existing statutory procedure, that fact is noted in the relevant committee note. — The committee felt strongly that it would be detrimental to the orderly process of estate probate and related procedures if a rule specified a different procedure than was specified in the related statute, even though the statute must, under the Florida Constitution, yield to the rule when there is a conflict. The committee, through the proper channels in The Florida Bar (initially, the Probate Law Committee of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section), intends to ask the legislature to repeal those portions of the statutes that are procedural when there are similar rules already in place, or when similar new rules are added by this opinion. — It is the opinion of the committee that continuing to maintain procedure in the statutes when there is a rule specifying that procedure is detrimental to the orderly process of the court and the public that it serves, especially when, over time, the statute and the rule may diverge.

Although — the Supreme Court — has adopted these recommended rules, — it has not specifically determined that all of the provisions of the statutes that were procedural have now been adopted as a rule. This is a continuing project for the committee and although these new rules and changes represent a substantial transition of procedure into the rules, the committee does not suggest that the transition is complete. — The court is not precluded from examining any particular statute or rule in the context of a particular actual dispute.

Rule History 1975 Revision: These rules shall govern the procedures to be followed in all matters pending on or commenced after January 1, 1976, including procedures for the enforcement of substantive rights that have vested before that date. See section 731.011, Florida Statutes. 1977 Revision: The changes in these rules shall take effect on July 1, 1977. 1988 Revision: In the opinion reported at 460 So.2d 906, the Florida Supreme Court directed the Probate and Guardianship Rules Committee to study the statutes and attempt to identify those portions of the Florida Probate Code, the Florida Guardianship Law, and other statutes that contained procedural provisions.

When those procedural provisions were identified, the committee was charged to promulgate rules incorporating those procedures. The committee has reviewed the statutes and has found a substantial measure of procedure that was contained only in the statutes for which there were no corresponding rules.

The committee also determined that much of the procedure in the statutes already had a rule counterpart. New rules added, or prior rules amended, in 1988 to add procedural matters previously found only in the statutes are rules 5.050, 5.122, 5.171, 5.180, 5.201, 5.235, 5.270, 5.275, 5.355, 5.360, 5.385, 5.386, 5.400, 5.440, 5.475, 5.490, and 5.510. With only one exception (see rule 5.050), the only portion of the statutes that has been reviewed in detail, and for which rules have been created, is the Florida Probate Code.

Other portions of the statute mentioned in the opinion cited above remain for the next cycle of this committee to review. As the committee wrote rules to transfer the statutory procedure into these rules, an attempt was made to write the rule without changing the meaning of the statute. It was not possible or advisable to use the exact wording of the statute in some instances, and in those instances the committee rewrote the statutory language in the format used in the rules generally.

Even under those circumstances, the committee attempted to transfer the entire procedural portion of the statute without changing its meaning. Where it was specifically intended in a few instances to add to existing statutory procedure, that fact is noted in the relevant committee note.

The committee felt strongly that it would be detrimental to the orderly process of estate probate and related procedures if a rule specified a different procedure than was specified in the related statute, even though the statute must, under the Florida Constitution, yield to the rule when there is a conflict.

The committee, through the proper channels in The Florida Bar (initially, the Probate Law Committee of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section), intends to ask the legislature to repeal those portions of the statutes that are procedural when there are similar rules already in place, or when similar new rules are added by this opinion. It is the opinion of the committee that continuing to maintain procedure in the statutes when there is a rule specifying that procedure is detrimental to the orderly process of the court and the public that it serves, especially when, over time, the statute and the rule may diverge.

Although the supreme court has adopted these recommended rules, it has not specifically determined that all of the provisions of the statutes that were procedural have now been adopted as a rule. This is a continuing project for the committee and although these new rules and changes represent a substantial transition of procedure into the rules, the committee does not suggest that the transition is complete.

The court is not precluded from examining any particular statute or rule in the context of a particular actual dispute. 1991 Revision: Rule' revised to reflect addition of new Part IV dealing with expedited judicial intervention concerning medical treatment procedures. 1992 Revision: In 1989, the Florida Legislature enacted a comprehensive revision to Florida's guardianship law.

In response, the Florida Supreme Court appointed an ad hoc committee to recommend temporary rules of procedure for the new law. In an opinion at 551 So.2d 452 (Fla.1989), the court adopted the temporary rules recommended by the ad hoc committee, to replace Part III of the then-existing Florida Probate Rules, effective October 1, 1989.

In its opinion, the court also directed the Florida Probate Rules Committee to review the new laws and, on a priority basis, to recommend permanent rules of procedure. The committee reviewed the Florida Guardianship Law enacted in 1989, as well as revisions to the law enacted in 1990, and presented its rule recommendations to the court in 1991.

The court, in an opinion at 584 So.2d 964, adopted the recommendations with minor exceptions, to be effective October 1, 1991- In 1990, the court also rendered its opinion in In re Guardianship of Browning, 568 So.2d 4 (Fla.1990), regarding a person's right to refuse life-prolonging medical procedures.

In that decision, the court directed the committee to recommend a rule to provide for expedited judicial intervention. In response, the committee created a new Part IV of these rules and recommended rule 5.900, which was adopted by the court, *1310with minor changes, in its opinion at 584 So.2d 964, effective October 1, 1991.

The committee continued its efforts to review the Florida Probate Code and to promulgate or amend rules regarding any procedural portions of those statutes. As a result of those efforts, as well as the efforts described above, the committee recommended amendments to rules 5.010, 5.025, 5.040, 5.050, 5.200, 5.240, 5.310, 5.346, 5.400, 5.470, 5.550, 5.560, 5.590, 5.600, 5.610, 5.620, 5.630, 5.640, 5.650, 5.660, 5.670, 5.680, 5.695, 5.700, 5.710, and 5.800; creation of new rules 5.496, 5.540, 5.541, 5.555, 5.635, 5.636, 5.690, 5.696, 5.697, 5.705, and 5.900; and deletion of rule 5.495.

In addition, the committee recommended editorial changes in virtually all the rules so that they would conform stylistically to one another and to all other rules promulgated by the supreme court. The following shall be adversary proceedings unless otherwise ordered by the court: proceedings to remove a personal representative, surcharge a personal representative, remove a guardian, surcharge a guardian, probate a lost or destroyed will or later-discovered will, determine beneficiaries, construe a will, cancel a devise, partition property for the purposes of distribution, determine pretermitted share, and for revocation of probate of a will. (b) Declared Adversary Proceedings.

Other proceedings may be declared adversary by service on interested persons of a separate declaration that the proceeding is adversary. (1) If served by the petitioner, the declaration shall be served with the petition to which it relates.

(2) If served by the respondent, the declaration and a written response to the petition shall be served at the earlier of: (A) within 20 days after service of the petition, or (B) prior to the hearing date on the petition.

(3) The declaration shall be served in the same form and manner as though responding to formal notice. (4)(3) When the declaration is served by a respondent, the petitioner shall promptly serve formal notice on all other interested persons. (c) Adversary Status by Order.

The court may determine any proceeding to be an adversary proceeding at any time. (d) Notice and Procedure in Adversary Proceedings. (1) Petitioner shall serve formal notice. (2) After service of formal notice, the proceedings, as nearly as practicable, shall be conducted similar to suits of a civil nature and the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern, including entry of defaults.

(3) The court on its motion or on motion of any interested person may enter orders to avoid undue delay in the main administration. (4) If a proceeding is already commenced when an order is entered determining the proceeding to be adversary, it shall thereafter be conducted as an adversary proceeding.

The order shall require interested persons to serve written defenses, if any, within 20 days from the date of the order. It shall not be necessary to re-serve the petition except as ordered by the court. (5) When the proceedings are adversary, the caption of subsequent pleadings, as an extension of the probate caption, shall include the name of the first petitioner and the name of the first respondent.

Committee Notes The court on its initiative or on motion of any party may order any proceeding to be adversary or nonadversary or vice versa or enter any order whiefathat will avoid undue delay. The personal representative would be an interested person in all adversary proceedings. A prescribed form for the caption is provided whichthat will facilitate the clerk's and the court's ability to segregate such adversary proceeding from other adversary proceedings and from the main probate file: Court Case #) In Re Estate of John B. Every guardian and every personal representative, unless the personal representative remains the sole interested person, shall be represented by an attorney admitted to practice in Florida.

If theA guardian or personal representative who is an attorney admitted to practice in Florida, — he may represent himself or herself as guardian or personal representative. (b) Limiting Appearance. An attorney of record for an interested person in a proceeding governed by these rules shall be the attorney of record in all other proceedings in the administration of the same estate or guardianship, except service of process in an independent action on a claim, unless (1) at the time of appearance the attorney files a notice specifically limiting histhe attorney's appearance only to the particu*1314lar proceeding or matter in which faethe attorney appears, or (2) the court orders otherwise. (c) Withdrawal or Limiting Appearance.

An attorney of record may withdraw or limit faisthe attorney's appearance with approval of the court, after filing a motion setting forth faisthe reasons and serving a copy on faisthe client and interested persons. Committee Notes The appearance of an attorney in an estate is a general appearance unless (i) specifically limited at the time of such appearance or (ii) the court orders otherwise.

This rule does not affect the right of a party to employ additional attorneys who, if members of The Florida Bar, may appear at any time. Rule History 1975 Revision: Paragraphsubdivision (a) is same as prior FPRrule 5.040 with added provision for withdrawal of attorney similar to Fla.R.App.P,Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 2.3(d)(2). 2.060 Attorneys. Fla.R.App.P. 9.440 Attorneys. RULE 5.040. NOTICE (a) Formal Notice. (1) When formal notice is given, a copy of the pleading or motion shall be served on interested persons, together with a notice requiring the person served to serve written defenses on the person giving notice within 20 days after service of the notice, exclusive of the day of service, and to file the original of the written defenses with the clerk of the court either before service or immediately thereafter, and notifying the person served that failure to serve written defenses as required may result in a judgment or order for the relief demanded in the pleading or motion, without further notice.

(2) After service of formal notice, informal notice of any hearing on the pleading or motion shall be served on interested persons, provided that if no written defense is served within 20 days after service of formal notice on an interested person, the pleading or motion may be considered ex parte as to that person, unless the court orders otherwise.

(3) Formal notice shall be served: (A) by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt as follows: (i) on an interested person represented by an attorney by mailing a copy to the attorney; or (ii) on an interested person who has filed a demand for notice by mailing a copy to *1315the post office address given in the demand for notice; or (iii) on an individual, other than an $\frac{1}{8}$ competent incapacitated person, by mailing a copy to faisthe individual's usual place of abode or to the place where faethe individual regularly conducts business; or (iv) on an incompetent incapacitated person by mailing a copy to faisthe person's usual place of abode and to faisthe person's legal guardian, if any, at faisthe guardian's usual place of abode or regular place of business; or, if there is no legal guardian, by mailing a copy to the incompetent inca-pacitated person at faisthe person's usual place of abode and to the person, if any, having care or custody of the incompeten-tincapacitated person at the usual place of abode or regular place of business of such custodian; or (v) on a corporation by mailing a copy to its registered office in Florida or its principal business office in Florida or, if neither is known after reasonable inquiry, to its last known address; or (B) as provided by Florida law for service of process; or (C) by an elisor as may be provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4) If service of process is made pursuant to Florida law, proof of service shall be made as provided therein. (5) Service of formal notice by mail shall be complete on receipt of the notice. If service is made by mail, proof of service shall be by verified statement of the person mailing service, and there shall be attached to the verified statement the signed receipt or other evidence satisfactory to the court that delivery was made to the addressee or to the addressee's agent. (b) Informal Notice.

When informal notice of a petition or other proceeding is required or permitted, it shall be served as provided in rule 5.041(b). (c) "Notice" Defined. In these rules, the Florida Probate Code, and the Florida Guardianship Law "notice" shall mean informal notice unless formal notice is specified. (d) Formal Notice Optional. Formal notice may be given in lieu of informal notice at the option of the person giving notice unless the court orders otherwise.

When formal notice is given in lieu of informal notice, formal notice shall be given to all interested persons entitled to notice. Committee Notes Formal notice is the method of service used in probate proceedings and the method of service of process for obtaining jurisdiction over the person receiving the notice. Informal notice is the method of service of notice given to interested persons entitled to notice when formal notice is not given or required.

Rule History 1975 Revision: Implements section 731.-301, Fla.Stat.Florida Statutes. 1977 Revision: Reference to elisor. 1980 Revision: Editorial changes. Clarification of time for filing defenses after formal notice. Authorizes court to give relief to delinquent respondent from ex parte status; relief from service on numerous persons; allows optional use of formal notice.

1984 Revision: Editorial changes. Eliminates deadline for filing as opposed to serving defenses after formal notice; defines procedure subsequent to service of defenses after formal notice; new requirements for service of formal notice on incompetents and corporations; defines when service of formal notice is deemed complete; provisions relating to method of service of informal notice transferred to new FPRules 5.041 and 5.042; eliminates waiver of notice by will.

RULE 5.041. SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND PAPERS (a) Service; When Required. Unless the court orders otherwise, every petition or motion for an order determining rights of an interested person, and every other pleading or paper filed in the particular proceeding which is the subject matter of such petition or motion, except applications for witness subpoenas, shall be served on interested persons unless these rules, the Florida Probate Code, or the Florida Guardianship Law provides otherwise.

No service need be made on interested persons against whom a default has been entered, or against whom the matter may otherwise proceed ex parte, unless a new or additional right or demand is asserted. (b) Service; How Made. When service is required or permitted to be made in a particular proceeding in the administration of an estate on an interested person represented by an attorney, service shall be made on the attorney unless service on the interested person is ordered by the court.

Except when serving formal notice, service on the attorney or interested person shall be made by delivering a copy to the attorney or interested person or by mailing it to him or her at his or her last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court. Delivery of a copy within this rule shall mean (1) handing it to the attorney or to the interested person, or (2) leaving it at his or her attorney's or interested person's office with his or her clerk or other person in charge thereof, or (3) if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein, or (4) if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his or her person's usual place of abode with some person of his or her family above 15 years of age and informing that person of the contents.

Service by mail shall be complete on mailing except where serving formal notice. (c) Service; Numerous Interested Persons. In proceedings when the interested persons are unusually numerous, the court may regulate the service contemplated by these rules on motion or on its initiative in a manner as may be found to be just and reasonable. (d) Filing. All original papers shall be filed either before service or immediately thereafter.

If the original of any bond or other paper is not placed in the court file, a certified copy shall be so placed by the clerk. (e) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him or her in which event the judge shall note thereon the filing date and transmit them to the clerk. (f) Certificate of Service.

When any attorney shall certify in substance: "I certify that a copy hereof has been furnished to (here insert name or names) by (delivery) (mail) this _ day of -, 19- Attorney" the certificate shall be taken as prima facie proof of service in compliance with these rules except in case of formal notice. A person not represented by an attorney shall certify in the same manner, but the certificate must be verified. (g) Service of Orders.

(1) A copy of all orders or judgments determining rights of an interested person shall be transmitted by the court or under its direction at the time of entry of the order or judgment to all interested persons in the particular proceeding.

(2) This subdivision (g) is directory, and a failure to comply with it does not affect the order or judgment or its finality. Committee Notes Derived from Fla.R.Civ-P. Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.080. Regulates the service of pleadings and papers in proceedings on petitions or motions for determination of rights. It is not applicable to every pleading and paper served or filed in the administration of a guardianship or decedent's estate.

1.080 Service of pleadings and papers. RULE 5.042. TIME (a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the period begins to run shall not be included.

The last day of the period shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which event the period shall run until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday, nor legal holiday. When the period is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded. Any day the clerk's office is closed shall be deemed a legal holiday for purposes of this rule. (b) Enlargement.

When an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time by these rules, by order of court, or by notice given thereunder, for cause shown the court at any time in its discretion (1) with or without notice may order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) on motion made and notice after the expiration of the specified period may permit the act to be done when failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

The court under this rule may not extend the time for serving a motion for rehearing or to enlarge any period of time governed by the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. (c) Service for Hearings. A copy of any written petition or motion which may not be heard ex parte and a copy of the notice of the hearing thereon shall be served a reasonable time before the time specified for the hearing. (d) Additional Time After Service by Mail.

Except for formal notice and notice of administration, when an interested person has the right or is required to act within a prescribed period after the service of notice or other paper on the interested person and the notice or paper is served on him by mail, 5 days shall be added to the prescribed period. Committee Notes This rule is derived from Fla.R., Civ.P., Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.090.

Rule History 1984 Revision: New rule. 1988 Revision: Editorial changes in (a) and (b). Paragraph Subdivision (a) enlarged to include closing of the clerk's office as a legal holiday. In Clara P. Diamond, Inc. v. Tam-Bay Realty, Inc., 462 So.2d 1168 (Fla. 2d DCA 1984), the Second District Court of Appeal suggested that Fla.R., Civ.P., Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.090(b) be clarified to leave no question that the court may not extend the time for rehearing, appeal, or petition for certiorari regardless of whether a request to enlarge the time therefor was made before the expiration of the time allowed.

Because the format of Rule 1.042(b) was substantially the same as the format of Rule 1.090(b), paragraph subdivision (b) is amended to conform for the sake of clarity. RULE 5.050. TRANSFER OF PROCEEDINGS (a) Incorrect Venue. When any proceeding is filed laying venue in the wrong county, the court may transfer the proceeding in the same manner as provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Any action taken by the court or the parties before the transfer is not affected because of the improper venue. (b) Change of Residence of Ward.

When the residence of a ward is changed to another county, the guardian of the person shall have the venue of the guardianship changed to the county of the acquired residence. Committee Notes Subdivision (b) of this rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in section 744.202(3), Florida Statutes. RULE 5.060. REQUEST FOR NOTICES AND COPIES OF PLEADINGS (a) Request. Any interested person who desires notice of proceedings in the estate of a decedent or ward may file a separate written request for notice of further proceedings, designating therein his such person's residence and post office address.

When such person changes his residence or post office address changes, a new designation of such change shall be filed in the proceedings. A person filing such request, or address change, shall also deliver a copy thereof to the clerk, who shall forthwith mail it to the attorney for the personal representative or guardian, noting on the original the fact of mailing. (b) Notice and Copies.

A party filing a request shall be served thereafter by the moving party with notice of further proceedings and with copies of subsequent pleadings and papers as long as the party is an interested person. Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: This rule substantially incorporates the provisions of prior FPRrule 5.060 except that now a copy of the request shall be mailed by the clerk only to the attorney for the personal representative or guardian.

Even though a request under this rule has not been made, informal notice as provided in FPRule 5.040(b)(3) may still be required. 1977 Revision: Editorial and citation form change in committee note. 1980 Revision: Caveat, the personal representative may want to give notice to parties even though not required, for example, where an independent action has been filed on an objected claim.

A personal representative and a guardian shall file a notice when a civil action has been instituted by or against the personal representative or the guardian.

The notice shall contain: (1) the names of the parties; (2) the style of the court and the case number; (3) the county and state where the proceeding is pending; (4) the date of commencement of the proceeding; and (5) a brief statement of the nature of the proceeding. (b) Ancillary Administration.

The domiciliary personal representative shall file a notice when an ancillary administration has commenced, which notice shall contain: *1321(1)the name and residence address of the ancillary personal representative; (2) the nature and approximate value of the ancillary assets; and (3) the information required in paragra-phssubdivisions (a)(2), (3), and (4) above. (c) Copies Exhibited.

A copy of the initial pleading may be attached to the notice. To the extent an attached initial pleading states the required information, the notice need not restate it. The following Florida Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply in probate and guardianship proceedings: (1) Rule 1.280, general provisions governing discovery*. (2) Rule 1.290, depositions before action or pending appeal*.

(3) Rule 1.300, persons before whom depositions may be taken*. (4) Rule 1.310, depositions upon oral examination*. (5) Rule 1.320, depositions upon written questions*. (6) Rule 1.330, use of depositions in court proceedings*.

(7) Rule 1.340, interrogatories to parties*. (8) Rule 1.350, production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes*. (9) Rule 1.351, production of documents and things without deposition*.

(10) Rule 1.360, examination of persons*, (11) Rule 1.370, requests for admission*, (12) Rule 1.380, failure to make discovery; sanctions*. (13) Rule 1.390, depositions of expert witnesses* — and, (14) Rule 1.400, publication of deposition. (b) Limitations and Costs.

In order to conserve the assets of the estate, the court has broad discretion to limit the scope and the place and manner of the discovery and may assess the costs of the discovery to against the party making it or to one against 1 or more of the beneficiaries of the estate or to against the ward in such proportions as the court determines, considering, among other things, the benefit derived therefrom.

Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: This rule is the same as prior FPRule 5.080, broadened to include guardianships and intended to clearly permit the use of discovery practices in nonadversary probate and guardianship matters. 1977 Revision: Editorial change in citation form in committee note. 1984 Revision: Fla.R.Civ.P.Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.290, 1.300, 1.351, and 1.410 have been added. *13221983 Revision: Subparagraph Subdivision (a)(15) deleted as duplicative of FPRule 5.070 Subpoena.

Fla.R.Jud.Admin. 2.070 Court reporting. RULE 5.100. RIGHT OF APPEAL All orders and judgments of the court determining rights of any party in any particular proceeding in the administration of the estate of a decedent or ward shall be deemed final and may, as a matter of right, be appealed to the appropriate district court of appeal, except those appeals which may be taken directly to the Supreme Court as provided by Section-Sj-Aarticle VL section 3 of the StateFlorida Constitution.

Appeals provided by this rule, including the right to supersedeas, shall be governed by the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. Committee Notes An order that determines rights of a party may be appealed before the administration of the estate is completed (e.g., determination of the validity of a will, or of the rights of a person to participate as an heir in an estate, is a final determination).

The rule defines “final orders and judgments” of the probate court that ultimately determine rights of a party in the estate. This rule is substantially the same as former RSrsection 732.15, Florida Statutes (repealed 1974) except that by rearrangement of that statute the word “finally” has been defined. Before letters are issued to a personal representative or a guardian, the personal representative or guardian shall file a designation of his place of residence, post office address, and the name, place of residence, and post office address of a resident in the county where proceedings are pending, as his the personal representative's or guardian's agent for the service of process or notice.

The written acceptance of the person appointed shall be filed at the time of filing the designation. The designation by the personal representative or guardian and acceptance by resident agent shall constitute the consent of the personal representative or guardian filing it that service of process or notice on the designated agent shall be sufficient to bind the personal representative or guardian in any action against him the personal representative or guardian, either in his a representative capacity, or personally, if the personal action accrued in the administration of the estate or guardianship.

The designation and acceptance may be incorporated in the petition for administration or for appointment of guardian if signed by the prospective personal representative or guardian, or in his the personal representative's or guardian's oath. (b) Corporate Fiduciaries. Corporate fiduciaries are not required to designate a resident agent. (c) Attorneys. A member of The Florida Bar residing in Florida, other than the personal representative, may be designated as the agent for service of process or notice, whether or not he the attorney is a resident of the county where the proceedings are pending. (d) Successor.

If the resident agent dies, resigns, or is unable to act for any other reason, the personal representative *1323 or guardian shall appoint a successor agent within 10 days after fee-receiving notice that such event has occurred. Committee Notes Rule History 1977 Revision: Change in committee note to conform to statutory renumbering. Substantially the same as prior FPRrule 5.210, except that under prior rule, designation was required to be filed within 10 days after letters issued.

1984 Revision: Captions added to para-graphssubdivisions. New paragr-aphsubdi- ' vision (b) added. Requires filing acceptance at the same time as filing designation. Committee notes revised.

1988 Revision: Change in (c) to clarify that the personal representative, if a member of The Florida Bar, may not also serve as resident agent for service of process or notice.

Issuance of letters. RULE 5.120. ADMINISTRATOR AD LI-TEM AND GUARDIAN AD LITEM (a)Appointment. When it is necessary that the estate of a decedent or a ward be represented in any probate or guardianship proceeding and there is no personal representative of the estate or guardian of the ward, or the personal representative or guardian is or may be interested adversely to the estate or ward, or is enforcing faisthe personal representative's or guardian's own debt or claim against the estate or ward, or the necessity arises otherwise, the court may appoint an administrator ad li-tem or a guardian ad litem, as the case may be, without bond or notice for that particular proceeding.

At any point in a proceeding, a court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of an ½-competentincapacitated person, an unborn or unascertained person, a minor or any other person otherwise under a legal disability, or a person whose identity or address is unknown, if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate.

If not precluded by conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests. The administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem shall file feisan oath to discharge feisall duties faithfully and upon the filing fee shall be qualified to act. No process need be served upon fefenthe administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem, but feesuch person shall appear and defend as directed by the court. (b) Petition.

The petition for appointment of a guardian ad litem shall state to the best of petitioner's information and belief: (1) the name and residence address of each minor or incompetentincapacitated person and birth date of each minor who has an interest in the proceedings; (2) the name and address of any guardian appointed for each minor or incompe-teatincapacitated person; (3) the name and residence address of any living natural guardians or living natural guardian having legal custody of each minor or incompetentincapacitated person; (4) a description of the interest in the proceedings of each minor or inoompeten-tincapacitated person; and (5) the facts showing the necessity for the appointment of a guardian ad litem. (c) Notice.

Within 10 days after appointment, the petitioner shall deliver or mail conformed copies of the petition for appointment of a guardian ad litem and order to any guardian, or if there is no guardian, to the living natural guardians or the living natural guardian having legal custody of the minor or incompetentincapa-citated person. (d) Report.

The guardian ad litem shall deliver or mail conformed copies of any written report or finding of feisthe guardian ad litem's investigation and his answer filed in the proceedings, petition for compensation and discharge, and the notice of hearing on the petition to any guardian, or in the event that there is no guardian, to *1324the living natural guardians or the living natural guardian having legal custody of the minor or incompetentincapacitated person. (e) Service of Petition and Order.

Within 10 days after appointment, the petitioner for an administrator ad litem shall deliver or mail conformed copies of the petition for appointment and order to the attorney of record of each beneficiary and to each known beneficiary not represented by an attorney of record. (f) Enforcement of Judgments. When an administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem recovers any judgment or other relief, it shall be enforced as other judgments.

Execution shall issue in favor of the administrator ad litem or guardian ad litem for the use of the estate or ward and the money collected shall be paid to the personal representative or guardian, or as otherwise ordered by the court. (g) Claim of Personal Representative.

The fact that the personal representative is seeking reimbursement for claims against the decedent paid by the personal representative does not require appointment of an administrator ad litem. Committee Notes Rule History 1977 Revision: Editorial change in (a) limiting application of rule to probate and guardianship proceedings.

In (b) the petition for appointment of a guardian need not be verified. Deletion of (g) as being substantive rather than procedural and changing former (h) to new (g). Change in committee note to conform to statutory renumbering. This rule implements Resections 731.-303(5), Re 733.308, and Re 744.391, Florida Statutes, and includes some of the provisions of prior FPRrule 5.230.

When it is necessary, the court may appoint a curator to take possession of a decedent's estate until letters of administration are granted.

On appointment, the court shall issue letters of curatorship which shall entitle the curator to possession of the decedent's property, which the court may enforce by contempt proceedings. (b) Notice. If the person entitled to letters is a resident of the county where the proceeding is filed, no curator shall be appointed until formal notice is given to bfe-such person.

If it is likely that the decedent's property will be wasted, destroyed, or removed beyond the jurisdiction of the court and if the appointment of a curator would be delayed by giving notice, the court may appoint a curator without notice. (c) Powers.

On order of the court, the curator may be authorized to perform any duty or function of a personal representative including publication of notice to creditors, or if a will has been admitted, notice of administration. (d) Bond. Bond shall be required of the curator as the court deems necessary to secure the property. No bond shall be required of banks and trust companies as curators. (e) Inventory and Accounting.

The curator shall file an inventory within 20 days. When the personal representative qualifies, the curator shall immediately account and deliver all assets of the estate in faisthe curator's possession to the personal repre*1325sentative within 20 days, and in default, shall be subject to the provisions of these rules relating to removal of personal representatives.

Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in Resection 733.501, Florida Statutes. It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules. It is not intended to create a new procedure or modify an existing procedure, except that paragraphsubdivision (c) of this rule is specific regarding tw©2 acts which the curator may be authorized to perform with order of court.

This specificity of example was not included in the statute, and the committee, by including this specification, did not intend to limit the authorized acts to those tw©2 specified in the rule. ORDER REQUIRING ACCOUNTING (a) Accountings Required by Statute. When any personal representative or guardian fails to file an accounting or return required by statute or rule, the court on its own motion or on the petition of an interested person shall order the personal representative or guardian to file the accounting or return within 15 days from the service on faimthe personal representative or guardian of the order, or show cause why he or she should not be compelled to do so. (b) Accountings Not Required by Statute.

On the petition of an interested person, or on its own motion, the court may require the personal representative or guardian to file an accounting or return not otherwise required by statute or rule. The order requiring an accounting or return shall order the personal representative or guardian to file the accounting or return within a specified time from service on the personal representative or guardian of the order, or show cause why he or she should not be compelled to do so. (c) Service.

A copy of the order shall be served on the personal representative or guardian and the personal representative's or guardian's attorney. An authenticated copy of a death certificate issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred or by an official or agency of the United States is prima facie proof of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

(2b) Other Records. A copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that a person is dead, alive, missing, detained, or, from the facts related, presumed dead is prima facie evidence of the status, dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report. (3c) Extended Absence. A person who is absent from the place of his/her last known domicile for a continuous period of 5 years and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search and inquiry is presumed dead.

The person's death is presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is evidence establishing that death occurred earlier. Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in § 731.103, Florida Statutes. It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules.

It is not intended to create a new procedure or modify an existing procedure, except that additional language has been added which was not in the statute, to permit issuance of a death certificate by an official or agency of the United States. An example would be such a certificate issued by the Department of State or the Department of Defense. Rule History 1988 Revision: New rule.

On petition the will of a decedent may be admitted to probate by filing: (1) filing a self-proved will executed as required by law; or (2) filing the will and the written oath of a person authorized by statute proving the execution of the will as required by law; or (3) filing an authenticated copy of a notarial will, the original of which is in the possession of a foreign notary if the will was valid under the laws of the state or country where the testator was at the time of execution; or (4) filing an authenticated copy of the will of any person who dies a resident of Florida that has been admitted to probate in another state or country if the original could have been admitted to probate in Florida; or (5) filing a will or photographic copy of a will written in a foreign language to which is attached a true and complete English translation together with proof of will as required by law.

In the order admitting the foreign language will to probate the court shall establish the correct English translation. (b) Petition. The petition shall contain the name, last known address, date and place of death of the decedent, and the state, county, and, if applicable, foreign country of the decedent's domicile. (c) Oath. Any circuit judge or clerk in Florida may take the oath of a witness to a will in proof of the attestation of that witness without issuance of a commission, attaching the original or photographic copy of the will to the oath of the witness.

Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: Proof of will may be taken by any Florida circuit judge or clerk without issuance of commission. 1984 Revision: This rule has been completely revised to set forth the procedure for proving all wills except lost or destroyed wills and the title changed.

The rule requires an oath attesting to the statutory requirements for execution of wills *1331 and the will must be proved before an order can be entered admitting it to probate. Former FPRules 5.280, 5.290, and 5.500 are included in this rule. Committee notes revised. 1988 Revision: Editorial and substantive changes. Change in (a)(3) to clarify which law determines validity of a notarial will; change in (a)(4) to clarify requirement that will of a Florida resident must comply with Florida law; adds new paragraph subdivision (b) to set forth required contents of petition for probate of will; moves former (b) to (c).

On petition the court may appoint a commissioner to take the oath of any person qualified to prove the will under Florida law.

The petition shall set forth the date of the will and the place where it was executed, if known; the names of the witnesses and address of the witness whose oath is to be taken; and the name, title, and address of the proposed commissioner. (b) Commission.

The commission shall be directed to any person who is authorized to administer an oath by the laws of Florida, the United States of America, or the state or country where the witness may be found, and it shall empower the commissioner to take the oath of the witness to prove the will and shall direct the commissioner to certify the oath and file the executed commission, copy of the will, oath of the witness, and certificate of commissioner.

An oath of the commissioner is not required. (c) Mailing or Delivery. The petitioner or his attorney shall cause the commission, together with a copy of the will, the oath, and the certificate of commissioner, to be mailed or delivered to the commissioner. (d) Filing.

The executed commission, copy of the will, oath of the witness, and certificate of commissioner shall be filed. (e) Objections. Objections to the validity of the will shall follow the form and procedure set forth in these rules pertaining to revocation of probate. Objections to the qualifications of the personal representative shall follow the form and procedure set forth in these rules pertaining to removal of personal representatives.

Objections to the venue or jurisdiction of the court shall follow the form and procedure set forth in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: Substantially the same as prior FPRule 5.130(a) and (b) and carries forward prior procedures as to a matter upon which Florida Probate Code is silent. 1984 Revision: This rule has been completely changed to set forth the procedure for the issuance and return of a commission.

The rule has been broadened to allow *1332 anyone authorized by Florida Statutes or by the U.S. Code to be a commissioner as well as those authorized by the state or country where the witness resides. The rule now provides that the petitioner or his attorney shall forward the commission to the commissioner.

The rule also contemplates that a Florida notary may be appointed as commissioner to take the proof of a witness outside the State of Florida. Committee notes revised and expanded. 1988 Revision: Editorial and substantive changes. Change in (a) to provide that the commissioner may take the oath of not only the attesting witness to the will but also the oath of any other person qualified to prove the will; change in (c) to permit copies other than photographic copies to be furnished to the commissioner, and to permit delivery of documents in a manner other than by mailing; change in (d) to require the filing of documents with the court.

After the petition for administration is filed and the will, if any, is admitted to probate: (1) Tthe court shall appoint the person entitled and qualified to be personal repre-sentativeq (2) Tthe court shall determine the amount of any bond required.

The clerk may approve the bond in the amount determined by the court and shall not charge a service fee?; and (3) Aany required oath or designation of, and acceptance by, a resident agent shall be filed. (b) Issuance of Letters. Upon compliance with all of the foregoing, letters shall be issued to the personal representative. (c) Bond.

On petition by any interested person or on the court's own motion, the court may waive the requirement of filing a bond, require a personal representative or curator to give bond, increase or decrease the bond, or require additional surety. Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in Resections 733.401 and 733.403(2), Florida Statutes.

It is not intended to change the effect of the statutes from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules. NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION (a) Publication and Service.

After issuance of letters, the personal representative shall publish a notice of administration and promptly serve a copy of the notice in the manner provided for formal notice in these rules on the surviving spouse and all beneficiaries known to the personal representative who have not been barred by law. Service upon creditors shall be in the manner provided for informal notice. (b) Contents.

The notice shall contain the name of the decedent, the file number of the estate, the designation and address of the court, the name and address of the personal representative and faisthe personal representative's attorney, and date of first publication.

The notice shall require all interested persons to file with the court, within the time provided by law: (1) all claims against the estate; and (2) any objection by an interested person on whom notice was served that challenges the validity of the will, the qualifications of the personal representative, and the venue or jurisdiction of the court. (c) Method of Publication and Proof.

Publication shall be made as required by law. Proof of publication shall be filed with the court within 45 days of the first publication. (d) Objections. Objections to the validity of the will shall follow the form and procedure set forth in these rules pertaining to revocation of probate. Objections to the qualifications of the personal representative shall follow the form and procedure set forth in these rules pertaining to removal of a personal representative.

Objections to the venue or jurisdiction of the court shall follow the form and procedure set forth in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. (e)Statement Regarding Creditors. Within 4 months after the date of the first publication of notice of administration, the personal representative shall file a verified statement that diligent search has been made to ascertain the name and address of each person having a claim against the estate.

The statement need not include persons who have filed a timely claim or who were included in the personal representative's proof of claim. The statement shall indicate the name and address of each person at that time known to the personal representative who has or may have a claim against the estate and whether such person was served with a notice of administration or otherwise received actual notice of the information contained in the notice of administration.

Committee Notes It is the committee's opinion that the failure to timely file the proof of publication of the notice of administration shall not affect time limitations for filing claims or objections. On April 19, 1988, the United States Supreme Court decided Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478, 108 S.Ct. 1340, 99 L.Ed.2d 565.

This case will have substantial impact on the method for handling (and barring) creditors' claims. This case stands for the proposition that a creditor may not be barred by the usual publication if that creditor was actually known to or reasonably ascertainable by the personal representative, and the PRpersonal representative failed to give notice to the creditor by mail or other means as certain to ensure actual notice.

Less than actual notice in these circumstances would deprive the creditor of fate due process rights under the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Probably actual notice of the death (as in the case of a hospital where the decedent died as a patient) without notice of the institution of probate proceedings is not sufficient. An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality is notice reasonably calculated, under all the circum*1334stances, to apprise interested persons of the pendency of the proceeding and afford them an opportunity to present their claims.

The statement required by this rule is not intended to be jurisdictional but rather to provide evidence of satisfaction (or lack thereof) of the due process requirements. Rule History 1977 Revision: Former subdivision (c) is deleted as being substantive rather than procedural. 1984 Revision: Editorial changes; new requirement to file proof of publication; new requirements as to form of objections to will and qualifications of personal representative.

Committee notes revised. 1988 Revision: The obligation to mail notice of administration to all known or reasonably ascertainable creditors has been added to comply with the dictates of Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478, 108 S.Ct. 1340, 99 L.Ed.2d 565 (1988). This rule does not require sending notice of administration to creditors in estates where the time for filing claims has expired before the effective date of this rule.

However, no opinion is offered whether such claims are barred by the provisions of section 733.702, Florida Statutes. Committee notes revised. Citation form changes in committee notes. 1991 Revision: Subdivision (a) modified to make it consistent with recent changes to sections 733.212 and 733.702, Florida Statutes. Those statutes were amended to comply with the dictates of Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478, 108 S.Ct.

1340, 99 L.Ed.2d 565 (1988). The caveat shall contain the decedent's name, the decedent's social security number or date of birth, if known, a statement of the interest of the caveator in the estate, and the name¹ and specific mailing address, and residence address of the caveator. (c) Resident Agent of Caveator; Service. If the caveator is not a resident of Florida, the caveator shall file a designation of the name and specific mailing address and residence address of a resident in the county where the caveat is filed as the caveator's agent for service of notice.

The written acceptance by the person appointed as resident agent shall be filed with the designation or included in the caveat. The designation and acceptance shall constitute the consent of the caveator that service of notice upon the designated resident agent shall bind the caveator. If the caveator is represented by an attorney admitted to practice in Florida who signs the caveat, it shall not be necessary to designate a resident agent under this rule. (d) Filing After Commencement.

If at the time of the filing of any caveat the decedent's will has been admitted to probate or letters of administration have been issued, the clerk shall forthwith notify the caveator in writing of the date of issuance of letters and the names and addresses of the personal representative and the personal representative's attorney. (e) Creditor. When letters of administration issue after the filing of a caveat by a creditor, the clerk shall forthwith notify the caveator, in writing, advising the caveator of the date of issuance of letters and the names and addresses of the personal representative and the personal representative's attorney, unless notice has previously been served on the caveator.

A copy of any notice given by the clerk, together with a certificate of the mailing of the original notice, shall be filed in the estate proceedings. (f) Other Interested Persons; Before Commencement. After the filing of a caveat by an interested person other than a creditor, the court shall not admit a will of the decedent to probate or appoint a personal representative without service of formal notice on the caveator or the caveator's designated agent.

Committee Notes Caveat proceedings permit a decedent's creditor or other interested person to be notified when letters of administration are issued. Thereafter, the caveator must take appropriate action to protect the caveator's interests. This rule treats the creditor caveator differently from other caveators. Rule History 1977 Revision: Carried forward prior BPRule 5.150.

1984 Revision: Changes in (a), (b), and (d) are editorial. Change in (c) eliminates resident agent requirement for Florida residents and for nonresidents represented by a Florida attorney. Service on the attorney binds caveator. Former (e) is now par-a-graph subdivisions (e) and (f) and treats creditor caveator differently from other interested persons. Change in (f) requires formal notice.

A petition for revocation of probate shall state the interest of the petitioner in the estate and the facts constituting the grounds on which revocation is demanded. (b) Continued Administration. Pending the determination of any issue for revocation of probate, the personal representative shall proceed with the administration of the estate as if no revocation proceeding had been commenced, except that no distribution may be made to devisees in contravention of the rights of those who, but for the will, would be entitled to the property disposed of.

Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in bisection 733.109(2), Florida Statutes. It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules. It is not intended to create a new procedure or modify an existing procedure.

The committee believes that subsections (1) and (3) of the statute are substantive, and have therefore not been included. Further, this rule revises para-graphsubdivision (b) of the prior similar rule to track the language in the statute from which it was derived. Rule History 1984 Revision: Extensive changes. Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: This is same as old FPRrule 5.220 and old bisection 732.47(3), Florida Statutes. The inventory shall list the estate with reasonable detail and include for each listed item its estimated fair market value at the date of the decedent's death. Real property appearing to be homestead property shall be listed and so designated. (b) Extension.

On petition the time for filing the inventory may be extended by the court for cause shown without notice, except that the personal representative shall serve copies of the petition and order on the persons described in paragraphsub-division (d). (c) Amendments. A supplementary or amended inventory containing the information required by paragraphsubdivision (a) as to each affected item shall be filed and served by the personal representative if: (1) the personal representative learns of property not included in the original inventory; or (2) the personal representative learns that the estimated value or description indicated in the original inventory for any item is erroneous or misleading; or (3) the personal representative determines the estimated fair market value of an item whose value was described as unknown in the original inventory. (d) Service.

The personal representative shall serve a copy of the inventory and all supplemental and amended inventories on the Department of Revenue, the surviving spouse, each heir at law in an intestate estate, each residuary beneficiary in a testate estate, and any other interested person who may request it in writing. (e) Information.

On reasonable request in writing the personal representative shall provide an interested person with information about the estate and shall permit an interested person to examine appraisals on which inventory values are based. Committee Notes Inventories are still required to be filed. Once filed, however, they are subject to the confidentiality provisions found in FFksec-tions 733.604(1) and (2), Florida Statutes. *1339Constitutional homestead real property is not necessarily a probatable asset.

Disclosure on the inventory of real property appearing to be constitutional homestead property informs interested persons of the homestead issue. The interim accounting shall include all cash and property transactions since the date of the last accounting or, if none, from the commencement of administration and shall also include a schedule of the assets at the end of the accounting period.

The accounting period may be a fiscal year or any other period selected by the personal representative. (b) Notice of Filing. Notice of filing and a copy of the interim accounting shall be served on interested persons.

The notice shall state that objections to the accounting must be filed within 30 days from the date of service of notice. (c) Objection. Any interested person may file an objection to the interim accounting within 30 days from the date of service of notice on that person. An objection shall be in writing and shall state with particularity the item or items to which the objection is directed and the grounds upon which the objection is based. (d) Service of Objections.

The objecting party shall serve a copy of the objection on the personal representative and other interested persons. (e) Approval. The interim accounting shall be deemed approved 30 days from the date of service of the interim accounting on interested persons, unless an objection is filed as provided in the rules. (f) Substantiating Papers.

On reasonable request in writing, the personal representative shall permit an interested person to examine papers substantiating items in an interim accounting. Committee Notes The personal representative is required to file a final accounting when administration is complete, unless filing is waived by interested persons. Additionally, a personal representative may elect, but is not required, to file interim accountings at any time.

The filing, notice, objection, and approval procedure is similar to that for final accounts. The following standards are suggested but not mandatory required for the accounting of all transactions occurring on or after January 1, 1994: (1) Accountings should shall be stated in a manner that is understandable to persons who are not familiar with practices and terminology peculiar to the administration of estates and trusts.

(2) A fiduciary The accounting shall begin with a concise summary of its purpose and content. (3) A fiduciary The accounting shall contain sufficient information to put interested persons on notice as to all significant transactions affecting administration during the accounting period.

(4) A fiduciary The accounting shall contain two values, the asset acquisition value or carrying value, and estimated current value. (5) Gains and losses incurred during the accounting period shall be shown separately in the same schedule.

(6) The accounting shall show significant transactions that do not affect the amount for which the fiduciary is accountable. (c)Forms Accounting Format. A Mmodel format for an accountsing are is attached to this rule as Appendix A. Committee Notes This is a new rule, — It substantially adopts the Uniform Fiduciary Accounting Principles and Model fFormats adopted by the Committee on National Fiduciary Accounting Standards of the American Bar Association: Section of Real Property, Probate and Trust Law, the American College of Probate Counsel, the American Bankers Association: Trust Division, and other organizations.

It is not intended that either the standards of (b) of this rule or-the format-of the model accounts appearing- in Appendix A to this note- are required by this rule-(they may be required by- the Court), — This rule in its present form simply provides that the foregoing standards and model-accounts shall be promulgated as one sufficient form — for fiduciary accounting, -It is the intention of the committee to recommend that-these rules, when next amended to become effective January 1, 1993, — will require compliance with-the standards and model account formats as they may — be revised in the interim after comments from members of the -Bar, Accountings shall also comply with the Florida principal and income law, chapter 738, Florida Statutes. *1341Attached as Appendix B to this noterule feare an explanation and commentary for each of the foregoing standards, which commentary shall be considered as a Committee Note to this rule.

Accountings that substantially conform to the model formats are acceptable. Rule 5.180(a)(6) allows a waiver to the requirement that principal and interest be separately accounted for. Entries on Summary are to be taken from totals on Schedules A, B, C and D. The Summary and Schedules A, B, C and D are to constitute the full accounting. Every transaction occurring during the accounting period should be reflected on the Schedules.

All purchases and sales, all adjustments to the inventory or carrying value of any asset, and any other changes in the assets (such as stock splits) should be described on Schedule C. The last entry on the Summary is to reflect the total inventory or adjusted carrying value of all assets on hand at the close of the accounting period.  SCHEDULE — A Receipts During Period (Does not include receipts from sale or other dispositions of principal assets.

Such transactions are shown on Schedule C.)  Schedule A should reflect only items received during administration that are not shown on the inventory. Classification of items as income or principal is to be in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Principal and Income Act, Chapter 738, Florida Statutes. Entries involving the sale of assets or other adjustments to the carrying value of assets are to be shown on Schedule C, and not on Schedule A. *1343  SCHEDULE — B Disbursements and Distributions (Does not include purchases of principal assets.

Such transactions are shown on Schedule C.)  Schedule B should reflect only those items paid out or distributed during administration. Assets distributed should be shown at their inventory or adjusted carrying values. Classification of disbursements as expense or principal is to be in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Principal and Income Act, Chapter 738, Florida Statutes.

Entries involving the purchase of assets or adjustments to the carrying values of assets are to be shown on Schedule C, and not on Schedule B.  *1344 SCHEDULE — C Capital Transactions and Adjustments (Do not show distributions. Distributions are shown on Schedule B.)  Schedule C should reflect all purchases and sales of assets and any adjustments to the carrying values of any assets.

Entries reflecting sales should show the inventory or adjusted carrying value, the costs and expenses of the sale, and the net proceeds received. The net gain or loss should be extended in the appropriate column on the right side of Schedule C. Entries reflecting purchases should reflect the purchase price, any expenses of purchase or other adjustments to the purchase price, and the total amount paid.

Presumably no gain or loss would be shown for purchases. Entries reflecting adjustments in capital assets should explain the change (such as a stock split) and the net gain or loss should be shown in the appropriate column on the right side of Schedule C.

*1345SCHEDULE — D Assets on Hand at Close of Accounting Period (Indicate where held and legal description, certificate numbers, or other identification) [[Image here]] Schedule D should be a complete list of all assets on hand reflecting inventory values for each item, adjusted in accord with any appropriate entries on Schedule C. Current market values for any assets that are known to be different from the inventory or carrying values as of the close of the accounting period should be shown in the column marked “Current Value.” The total inventory or adjusted carrying value (not Current Value) is to be shown as Item V on Summary.

APPENDIX B TO RULE 5.346 UNIFORM FIDUCIARY ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES I. ACCOUNTS SHOULD BE STATED IN A MANNER THAT IS UNDERSTANDABLE BY PERSONS WHO ARE NOT FAMILIAR WITH PRACTICES AND TERMINOLOGY PECULIAR TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES AND TRUSTS. Commentary: In order for an account to fulfill its basic function of communication, it is essential that it be stated in a manner that recognizes that the interested parties are not usually familiar with fiduciary accounts.

It is neither practical nor desirable to require that accounts be tailored to meet individual disabilities of particular parties but any account should be capable of being understood by a person of average intelligence, literate in English, and familiar with basic financial terms who has read it with care and attention. Problems arising from terminology or style are usually a reflection of the fact that people who become versed in a particu*1346lar form of practice tend to forget that terms which are familiar and useful to them may convey nothing to someone else or may even be affirmatively misleading.

For example, the terms “debit” and “credit” are generally incomprehensible to people with no knowledge of bookkeeping and many people who are familiar with them in other contexts would assume that in the context of fiduciary accounting, the receipt of an item is a “credit” to the fund rather than a “debit” to the fiduciary. While the need for concise presentation makes a certain amount of abbreviation both acceptable and necessary, uncommon abbreviation of matters essential to an understanding of the account should be avoided or explained.

No position is taken for or against the use of direct print-outs from machine accounting systems. The quality of the accounts produced by these systems varies widely in the extent to which they can be understood by persons who are not familiar with them.

To endorse or object to a direct print-out because it is produced by machine from previously stored data would miss the essential point by focusing attention upon the manner of preparation rather than the product. II. A FIDUCIARY ACCOUNT SHALL BEGIN WITH A CONCISE SUMMARY OF ITS PURPOSE AND CONTENT. Commentary: Very few people can be expected to pay much attention to a document unless they have some understanding of its general purpose and its significance to them.

Even with such an understanding, impressions derived from the first page or two will often determine whether the rest is read. The use that is made of these pages is therefore of particular significance. The cover page should disclose the nature and function of the account. While a complete explanation of the significance of the account and the effect of its presentation upon the rights of the parties is obviously impractical for inclusion at this point, there should be at least a brief statement identifying the fiduciary and the subject matter, noting the importance of examining the account and giving an address where more information can be obtained.

It is assumed that the parties would also have enough information from other sources to understand the nature of their relationship to the fund (e.g., residuary legatee, life tenant, remainderman), the function of the account, and the obligation of the fiduciary to supply further relevant information upon request. It is also assumed that notice will be given of any significant procedural considerations such as limitation on the time within which objections must be presented.

This would normally be provided by prior or contemporaneous memoranda, correspondence^{^^} or discussions. A summary of the account shall also be presented at the outset. This summary, organized as a table of contents, shall indicate the order of the details presented in the account and shall show separate totals for the aggregate of the assets on hand at the beginning of the accounting period; transactions during the period; and the assets remaining on hand at the end of the period.

Each entry in the summary shall be supported by a schedule in the account that provides the details on which the summary is based. III. A FIDUCIARY ACCOUNT SHALL CONTAIN SUFFICIENT INFORMATION TO PUT THE INTERESTED PARTIES ON NOTICE AS TO ALL SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS AFFECTING ADMINISTRATION DURING THE ACCOUNTING PERIOD. Commentary: The presentation of the information account shall allow an interested party to follow the progress of the fiduciary's administration of assets during the accounting period.

An account is not complete if it does not itemize, or make reference to, assets on hand at the beginning of the accounting period. Illustration: 3.1 The first account for a decedent's estate or a trust may detail the items received by the fiduciary and for which the fiduciary is responsible. It may refer to the total amount of an inventory filed elsewhere or assets described in a schedule attached to a trust agreement. *1347 Instead of retyping the complete list of assets in the opening balance, the preparer may prefer to attach as an exhibit a copy of the inventory, closing balance from the last account, etc., as appropriate, or may refer to them if previously provided to the interested parties who will receive it.

Transactions shall be described in sufficient detail to give interested parties notice of their purpose and effect. It should be recognized that too much detail may be counterproductive to making the account understandable.

In accounts covering long periods or dealing with extensive assets, it is usually desirable to consolidate information. For instance, where income from a number of securities is being accounted for over a long period of time, a statement of the total dividends received on each security with appropriate indication of changes in the number of shares held will be more readily understandable and easier to check for completeness than a chronological listing of all dividends received.

Although detail should generally be avoided for routine transactions, it will often be necessary to proper understanding of an event that is somewhat out of the ordinary. Illustrations: 3.2 Extraordinary appraisal costs should be shown separately and explained. 3.3 Interest and penalties in connection with late filing of tax returns should be shown separately and explained.

3.4 An extraordinary allocation between principal and income such as apportionment of proceeds of property acquired on foreclosure should be separately stated and explained. 3.5 Computation of a formula marital deduction gift involving non-probate assets should be explained. IV. A FIDUCIARY ACCOUNT SHALL CONTAIN TWO VALUES, THE ASSET ACQUISITION VALUE OR CARRYING VALUE, AND CURRENT VALUE.

Commentary: In order for transactions to be reported on a consistent basis, an appropriate carrying value for assets must be chosen and employed consistently. The carrying value of an asset should reflect its value at the time it is acquired by the fiduciary (or a predecessor fiduciary). When such a value is not precisely determinable, the figure used should reflect a thoughtful decision by the fiduciary.

For assets owned by a decedent, inventory values or estate tax values — generally reflective of date of death — would be appropriate. Assets received in kind by a trustee from a settlor of an inter vivos trust should be carried at their value at the time of receipt.

For assets purchased during the administration of the fund, cost would normally be used. Use of Federal income tax basis for carrying value is acceptable when basis is reasonably representative of real values at the time of acquisition. Use of tax basis as a carrying value under other circumstances could be affirmatively misleading to beneficiaries and therefore is not appropriate.

In the Model Account, carrying value is referred to as “fiduciary acquisition value.” The Model Account establishes the initial carrying value of assets as their value at date of death for inventoried assets, date of receipt for subsequent receipt^{Sj} and cost for investments. Carrying value would not normally be adjusted for depreciation. Except for adjustments that occur normally under the accounting system in use, carrying values should generally be continued unchanged through successive accounts and assets should not be arbitrarily “written up” or “written down.” In some circumstances, however, with proper disclosure and explanation, carrying value may be adjusted.

Illustrations: 4.1 Carrying values based on date of death may be adjusted to reflect changes on audit of estate or inheritance tax returns. 4.2 Where appropriate under applicable local law, a successor fiduciary may adjust the carrying value of assets to reflect values at the start of his/her fiduciary's administration. 4.3 Assets received in kind in satisfaction of a pecuniary legacy should be carried at the value used for purposes of distribution. *1348 Though essential for accounting purposes, carrying values are commonly misunderstood by laymen as being a representation of actual values.

To avoid this, the account should include both current values and carrying values. The value of assets at the beginning and ending of each accounting period is necessary information for the evaluation of investment performance.

Therefore, the account should show, or make reference to, current values at the start of the period for all assets whose carrying values were established in a prior accounting period. Illustrations: 4.4 The opening balance of the first account of a testamentary trustee will usually contain assets received in kind from the executor. Unless the carrying value was written up at the time of distribution (e.g., 4.2 or 4.3 supra) these assets will be carried at a value established during the executor's administration.

The current value at the beginning of the accounting period should also be shown. 4.5 An executor's first account will normally carry assets at inventory (date of death) values or costs. No separate listing of current values at the beginning of the accounting period is necessary. Current values should also be shown for all assets on hand at the close of the accounting period.

The date on which current values are determined shall be stated and shall be the last day of the accounting period, or a date as close thereto as reasonably possible. Current values should be shown in a column parallel to the column of carrying values. Both columns should be totalled.

In determining current values for assets for which there is no readily ascertainable current value, the source of the value stated in the account shall be explained. The fiduciary shall make a good faith effort to determine realistic values but should not be expected to incur expenses for appraisals or similar costs when there is no reason to expect that the resulting information will be of practical consequence to the administration of the estate or the protection of the interests of the parties.

Illustrations: 4.6 When an asset is held under circumstances that make it clear that it will not be sold (e.g., a residence held for use of a beneficiary) the fiduciary's estimate of value would be acceptable in lieu of an appraisal. 4.7 Considerations such as a pending tax audit or offer of the property for sale may indicate the advisability of not publishing the fiduciary's best estimate of value.

In such circumstances, a statement that value was fixed by some method such as “per company books,” “formula under buy-sell agreement,” or “300% of assessed value” would be acceptable, but the fiduciary would be expected to provide further information to interested parties upon request. Y. GAINS AND LOSSES INCURRED DURING THE ACCOUNTING PERIOD SHALL BE SHOWN SEPARATELY IN THE SAME SCHEDULE.

Commentary: Each transaction involving the sale or other disposition of securities during the accounting period shall be shown as a separate item in one combined schedule of the account indicating the transaction, date, explanation, and any gain or loss.

Although gains and losses from the sale of securities can be shown separately in accounts, the preferred method of presentation is to present this information in a single schedule. Such a presentation provides the most meaningful description of investment performance and will tend to clarify relationships between gains and losses that are deliberately realized at the same time.

VI. THE ACCOUNT SHALL SHOW SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE AMOUNT FOR WHICH THE FIDUCIARY IS ACCOUNTABLE. Commentary: Transactions such as the purchase of an investment, receipt of a stock splits or change of a corporate name do not alter the total fund for which a fiduciary is accountable but must be shown in order to permit analysis and an understanding of the administration of the fund.

These can be best shown in information schedules. One schedule should list all investments made during the accounting period. It should include those subsequently sold as well as those still on hand. Frequently the same money will be used for a series of investments.

Therefore, the schedule should not be totalled in order to avoid giving an exaggerated idea of the size of the fund. A second schedule (entitled “Changes in Investment Holdings” in the Model Account) should show all transactions affecting a particular security holding, such as purchase of additional shares, partial sales, stock splits, change of corporate name, investment distributions, etc. This schedule, similar to a ledger account for each holding, will reconcile opening and closing entries for particular holdings, explain changes in carrying value and avoid extensive searches through the account for information scattered among other schedules.

RULE 5.350. CONTINUANCE OF UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS OR VENTURE (a) Separate Accounts and Reports. In the conduct of an unincorporated business or venture, the personal representative shall keep separate, full, and accurate accounts of all receipts and expenditures and make reports as the court may require. (b) Petition. If the personal representative determines it to be in the best interest of the estate to continue an unincorporated business or venture beyond the time authorized by statute or will, the personal representative shall file a verified petition which shall include: (1) a statement of the nature of that business or venture; (2) a schedule of specific assets and liabilities; (3) the reasons for continuation; (4) the proposed form and times of accounting for that business or venture; (5) the period for which the continuation is requested; and (6) any other information pertinent to the petition. (c) Order.

If the continuation is authorized, the order shall state: (1) the period for which that business or venture is to continue; (2) the particular powers of the personal representative in the continuation of that business or venture; and (3) the form and frequency of accounting by that business or venture. (d) Petition by Interested Person. Any interested person, at any time, may petition the court for an order regarding the operation of, accounting for, or termination of an unincorporated business or venture, and the court shall enter an order thereon.

Committee Notes Rule History 1975 Revision: New rule. 3&78 733.612;; Fla.Stat. 1984 Revision: Extensive changes in rule and title. Clarifies procedural steps to be taken by a personal representative who determines it to be in the best interest of an estate to continue any unincorporated business beyond the time authorized by statute. Information required to be filed in a verified petition is specified, and normal information to be included in a court order is listed.

Other pertinent information under (b)(6) may include provisions for insurance of business or venture, proposed professionals to be used in connection with such activities, how the business or venture shall be managed, the person or persons proposed for managerial positions, a list of all other employees, agents, or independent contractors employed by or affiliated with the business or venture, and proposed compensation for all such management personnel, agents, employees, and independent contractors.

The petition shall state the grounds on which it is based. The burden of proving the propriety of the employment and the reasonableness of the compensation shall be upon the personal representative and the person employed by hhathe personal representative. Any person who is determined to have received excessive compensation from an estate may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in Subsection 733.6175, Florida Statutes. It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules. Upon the filing of an election to take elective share, at the option of the surviving spouse, a copy of the election to take elective share, together with a notice of election, may be served on interested persons in the manner provided for service of formal notice.

The notice of election shall indicate the name and the address of the attorney for the surviving spouse and of the attorney for the personal representative, and shall include a notice that objections to the election must be filed within 20 days from the receipt of the copy of the notice or be thereafter barred.

(2) Objection to Election. Any interested person may file an objection to the election which shall state with particularity the grounds on which the objection is based. No objection shall be filed later than 20 days after receipt of the copy of the notice of election, unless the time is extended.

The objecting party shall serve a copy of the objection on the attorney for the surviving spouse and on the attorney for the personal representative. If an objection is served, the personal representative shall promptly serve a notice of election and copy of the election and the objection as provided in paragraph subdivision (1), on all *1351interested persons who have not previously been served.

The proceedings shall thereafter be adversary. (3) Determination of Entitlement. If an objection is filed, the court shall first determine the surviving spouse's entitlement to the elective share. (b) Procedure to Determine Elective Share.

(1) Petition by Personal Representative. If the surviving spouse files an election for elective share, the personal representative shall file a petition to determine the amount of the elective share stating the proposed time and manner of distribution in satisfaction of the elective share.

(2) Petition by Spouse. If the personal representative does not file the petition to determine the amount of the elective share, the electing spouse may file the petition specifying as particularly as is known the value of the elective share.

(3) Order Determining Elective Share. The order shall state the amount of the elective share and the time and manner of distribution. (c) Time of Payment. No distribution shall be required until six months from the date of death, when no federal estate tax return is required to be filed, or until the tax return is timely filed, when required.

The order may provide for partial distributions. (d) Suspension of Payment. On petition of any interested person after notice, the court may suspend distribution of the elective share or any part of it until final settlement of the federal estate tax liability of the estate. (e) Petition for Dower.

The widow may also file an extraordinary petition for assignment of dower in the court of each county or counties where lands lie which her husband had conveyed in which she had not relinquished her right of dower prior to October 1, 1973. Formal notice shall be served on persons adversely affected.

The proceedings shall be as similar as possible to those formerly existing for the ordinary assignment of dower. Committee Notes The surviving spouse may optionally serve a notice of election together with a copy of the election. This procedure bifurcates the issue of entitlement from any issue of determination of amount, timing of payment, or funding procedures.

It is intended to allow the surviving spouse and other interested parties to make an early determination of whether any issue exists as to entitlement. If the surviving spouse does not follow this elective procedure or serves lessfewer than all interested persons, any person not served may object to entitlement at any time before entry of the order determining elective share.

As to any person so served, failure timely to object would waive any such objection unless the time was extended for good cause shown. Good cause for extending the time after its expiration might-include the inability to discover the basis for such objection through- the exercise of reasonable — diligence during the time provided. If the optional procedure of paragraphsubdivision (a) is utilized, the procedural provisions in paragraphsubdivision (b) still apply, although the proceeding is adversary if any objection is filed.

If the optional procedure is not utilized, the matters of entitlement and determination may, nevertheless, be bifurcated by the court. It is intended that the role of the personal representative in this procedure would be as a neutral. Since hethe personal representative is a fiduciary owing duties to all interested persons, it is not appropriate that hethe personal representative should take a position for or against the award of the elective share and expend estate funds in that regard.

See Barnett v. Barnett, 340 So.2d 548 (Fla. 1st DCA 1976); In re Estate of Lynagh, 177 So.2d 256 (Fla. 2d DCA 1965). However, the personal representative is not prohibited from advancing a position regarding the timing of payment or the assets to be used to satisfy the elective share or other such issue relating directly to the administration of the estate and is not intended to favor one beneficiary over another or over the surviving spouse. *1352A personal representative as a fiduciary has a duty of full disclosure to all interested persons and the court, for instance regarding knowledge of the existence of a marital agreement or other relevant facts.

The committee offers no opinion on whether a personal representative may have a duty to oppose the entitlement to the elective share based on the existence of an apparently valid marital agreement. The case of Menz v. Estate of Menz, 381 So.2d 375 (Fla. 1st DCA 1980), provides for attorney's fees to be awarded to the surviving spouse if the personal representative fails to file a petition to determine the amount of the elective share.

If the optional procedure in paragraph subdivision (a) is utilized, the filing of the petition to determine elective share may be delayed until final determination of entitlement. Paragraphs Subdivisions (c) and (d) of this rule represent a rule implementation of the procedure found in R§ion 732.214^{1/8} Florida Statutes. It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules.

It is not intended to create a new procedure or modify an existing procedure. Rule History 1984 Revision: Extensive changes. Clarifies information to be included in a petition for elective share filed by a personal representative and specifies information to be included in an order determining elective share. Committee notes revised and expanded. 1988 Revision: Extensive changes.

A new procedure has been added providing for optional service of a notice of election together with a copy of the election and a procedure to expose objections to and determine right to entitlement, separate from the pre-existing procedure of determination of amount and setting aside. Paragraphs Subdivisions (c) and (d) represent rule implementation of procedure in statute.

SALES OF REAL PROPERTY WHERE NO POWER CONFERRED (a) Petition. When authorization or confirmation of the sale of real property is required, application shall be made by verified petition of the personal representative setting forth the reasons for the sale, a description of the real property sold or proposed to be sold, and the price and terms of the sale. (b) Order.

If the sale is authorized or confirmed, the order shall describe the real property and, if the property is authorized to be sold at private sale, shall fix the price and the terms of the sale. An order authorizing a sale may provide for the public or private sale of the real property described therein, in parcels or as a whole. If public sale is ordered, the personal representative shall give such notice as the order requires.

Committee Notes Petitions under the rule are governed by ~~ftSr~~Section 733.610, Florida Statutes, under which sales are voidable by interested persons if there was a conflict of interest without full disclosure and consent, unless the will or contract entered into by the decedent authorized the transaction or it was approved by the court after notice to all interested persons, and by ~~Flection~~ 733.609, Florida Statutes, involving bad faith actions by the personal representative.

If the court finds that the property will not be required for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a), it may enter an order describing the property to be surrendered or delivered and compelling the personal representative, prior to the final settlement of ~~faisthe~~ the personal representative's accounts, to do one or more of the following: (1) ~~te-p~~Pay all or any part of a devise in money?.

RULE 5.400. DISTRIBUTION AND DISCHARGE (a) Petition for Discharge; Final Accounting. When a A personal representative who has completed administration except for distribution, — he shall file a final accounting and a petition for discharge including a plan of distribution. (b) Contents.

The petition for discharge shall contain a statement: (1) that the personal representative has fully administered the estate; (2) that all claims which were presented have been paid, settled, or otherwise disposed of; (3) that the personal representative has paid or made provision for taxes and expenses of administration; (4) showing the amount of compensation paid or to be paid to the personal representative, attorneys, accountants, appraisers, or other agents employed by the personal representative; (5) showing a plan of distribution which shall include: (A) a schedule of all prior distributions; (B) the property remaining in the hands of the personal representative for distribution; and (C) a schedule describing the proposed distribution of the remaining assets; and (D) the amount of funds retained by the personal representative to pay expenses that are incurred in the distribution of the remaining assets and termination of the estate administration; (6) that any objections to the accounting, the compensation paid or proposed to be paid, or the proposed distribution of assets *1356 must be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the last of the petition for discharge or final accounting; and also that within 90 days after filing of the objection, a notice of hearing thereon must be served or the objection is abandoned; and (7) that objections, if any, shall be in writing and shall state with particularity the item or items to which the objection is directed and the grounds on which the objection is based. (c) Closing Estate; Extension.

The final accounting and petition for discharge shall be filed and served on interested persons within 12 months after issuance of letters for estates not required to file a federal estate tax return, otherwise within 12 months from the date the return is due, unless the time is extended by the court for cause shown after notice to interested persons.

The petition to extend time shall state the status of the estate and the reason for the extension. (d) Distribution. The personal representative shall promptly distribute the estate property in accordance with the plan of distribution, unless objections are filed as provided in these rules. (e) Discharge.

On receipt of evidence that the estate has been fully administered and properly distributed, the court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative and releasing the surety on any bond. (f) Waiver. The final accounting, any portion of the petition for discharge, or the time for filing objections may be waived by all interested persons. Committee Notes The rule establishes a procedure for giving notice and serving the final accounting, petition for discharge, and plan of distribution to all interested persons prior to distribution and discharge.

No distinction is made in plans of distribution which distribute estate property in kind among multiple residual beneficiaries proportionate to their respective interests and those which include equalizing adjustments in cash or property and which do not make prorated distribution. Rule History 1980 Revision; Change in prior (a)(6) to require that an objection set forth the basis on which it is being made.

1984 Revision; This rule has been substantially revised. Portions of the prior rule are now incorporated in FPRrules 5.400 and 5.401. The committee has included the procedure for filing and serving of objections to the final accounting, petition for discharge, plan of distribution or compensation in FPRrule 5.401. An interested person may object to the petition for discharge or final accounting within 30 days after the service of the later of the petition or final accounting on that interested person. (b) Contents. Written objections to the petition for discharge or final accounting must state with particularity the items to which the objections are directed and must state the grounds on which the objections are based. (c) Service.

Copies of the objections shall be served by the objector on the personal representative and interested persons not later than 30 days after the last date on which the petition for discharge or final accounting was served on the objector. (d) Hearing on Objections. Any interested person may set a hearing on the objections. Notice of the hearing shall be given to all interested persons.

If the objections are not noticed for hearing within 90 days of filing of the objections, the objections shall be deemed abandoned and the personal representative may make distribution as set forth in the plan of distribution. (e) Order on Objections.

The court shall sustain or overrule any objections to the petition for discharge and final accounting and shall determine a plan of distribution. (f) Discharge. On receipt of evidence that the estate has been distributed according to the plan determined by the court and the claims of creditors have been paid or otherwise disposed of, the court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative and releasing the surety on any bond.

PROCEEDINGS TO DETERMINE HOMESTEAD REAL PROPERTY (a) Petition. An interested person may file a petition to determine homestead real property owned by the decedent. (b) Contents.

The petition shall be verified by the petitioner and shall state: (1) the date of the decedent's death; (2) the county of the decedent's domicile at the time of his death; (3) the name of the decedent's surviving spouse and the names and dates of birth of the decedent's surviving lineal descendants; (4) a legal description of the property owned by the decedent on which the decedent resided; and (5) any other facts in support of the petition. (c) Order.

If the court determines that the property constituted the homestead of the decedent, it shall enter an order determining the legal description and the persons entitled to the homestead real property- Committee Notes This rule establishes the procedure by which the personal representative or any interested person may petition the court for a determination that certain real property constituted the decedent's homestead property, in accordance with article X, section 4 of the Florida Constitution.

PROCEEDINGS TO DETERMINE EXEMPT PROPERTY (a) Petition.

A verified petition to determine exempt property shall be filed by or on behalf of the persons entitled to exempt property within the time allowed by law. (b) Contents. The petition shall: (1) describe the property and the basis on which it is claimed as exempt property; and (2) state the name and address of the decedent's surviving spouse or, if none, the names and addresses of decedent's children entitled by law to the exempt property and the dates of birth of those who are minors. (c) Order.

The court shall determine each item of exempt property and its value and order the surrender of that property to the persons entitled to it. Committee Notes This rule establishes the procedure by which the personal representative or any interested person may petition the court for determination of exempt property in accordance with article X, section 4 of the Florida Constitution and Resection 732.-402, Florida Statutes.

Section 732.402, Florida Statutes, specifies the time within which the petition to determine exempt property must be filed after first publication of notice of administration, unless extended as provided in the statute. decedent's personal property without administration. An application signed by the applicant shall set forth the following information: (1) the description and value of the exempt property; (2) the description and value of the other assets of the decedent; (3) the amount of preferred funeral expenses and reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses for the last 60 days of the last illness together with accompanying statements or payment receipts; and (4) each requested payment or distribution of personal property. (b) Exempt Property.

If the decedent's personal property includes exempt property, or property that can be determined to be exempt property, the application must also be signed by all persons entitled to the exempt property or by their representative. (c) Preparation.

On request, the clerk shall assist the applicant in the preparation of the required writing. (d) Disposition. If the court is satisfied that disposition without administration is appropriate, the court may, without hearing, by letter or other writing authorize the payment, transfer, or disposition of the decedent's personal property to those persons entitled to it.

Committee Notes Fr&Section 732.402, Florida Statutes, requires persons entitled to exempt property, which excludes property specifically or demonstratively devised, to file timely a petition to determine exempt property.

Accordingly, disposition of personal property under this rule should not be granted if decedent's personal property includes exempt property without all persons entitled thereto agreeing to such disposition. A personal representative may resign and be relieved of his office upon filing a resignation with notice to all interested persons, including any surety on the bond.

Before relieving the personal representative from his duties of the office, the court shall require the personal representative to file an accounting and to pay over and deliver to his successor or to the joint personal representative all of the decedent's estate and all records concerning the estate.

The acceptance of such resignation shall not exonerate any personal representative or his surety from liability previously incurred. (b) Appointment of Successor. When a sole personal representative resigns, a successor must be appointed and qualified before a personal representative is relieved of his duties of the office. The court on its own motion or any surety, any joint personal representative, or any other interested person by petition may commence a proceeding to remove a personal representative. A petition for removal shall state the facts constituting the grounds upon which removal is demanded-sought, and shall be filed in the court issuing the letters. (b) Accounting.

A removed personal representative shall file an accounting of his administration within 30 days after his removal. The accounting shall include a statement of all property on hand, and all receipts and disbursements and all cash and other property transactions from the date of the last accounting or, if none, from the date that letters were issued to the removed personal representative.

The provisions relating to notice of filing, objections to accounting, approval of accounting by the court, and substantiation of account-ings contained in Rule 5.345(b) through (f) shall apply to this rule. (c) Delivery of Records and Property. A removed personal representative shall deliver to the remaining or successor personal representative all of the records of the estate and all of the property of the estate within 30 days after his removal or within such lesser time set by the court. (d) Failure to File Accounting or Deliver Records and Property.

If a removed personal representative fails to file an accounting of his administration or fails to deliver to the remaining or successor personal representative all property of the estate and all estate records under his control of the personal representative within the time prescribed by this rule or by order of the court, the removed personal representative shall be subject to contempt proceedings. *1361 Committee Notes The revision of paragraph subdivision (a) of this rule by the addition of its final phrase represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in Re Section 733.505^ Florida Statutes.

On presentation of the foregoing, the court shall *1363admit the will and any codicils to probate if they comply with Resection 732.502(1) or RRsection 732.502(2), Florida Statutes;T (2) in an intestate estate, the petition for administration; order appointing personal representative; and an authenticated copy of letters of administration, or their equivalent, with the part of the record showing the names of the heirs of the decedent or an affidavit of the domiciliary personal representative supplying the names, as provided in subparagraphdivision (1).

On presentation of the foregoing, the court shall order them recorded. (b) Notice to Creditors. After complying with the foregoing requirements, the domiciliary personal representative shall cause a notice to creditors to be published as required by these rules. (c) Claims Procedure.

The procedure for filing or barring claims and objecting to them and for suing on them shall be the same as for other estates, except as provided in this rule. (d) Order. If no claims are filed against the estate within the time allowed, the court shall enter an order adjudging that notice to creditors has been duly published and proof thereof filed and that no claims have been filed against the estate or that all claims have been satisfied. (e) Notification of Claims Filed.

If any claim is filed against the estate within the time allowed, the court shall send to the domiciliary personal representative a copy of the claim and a notice setting a date for a hearing to appoint an ancillary personal representative. At the hearing, the court shall appoint an ancillary personal representative according to the preferences as provided by law. (f) Objections to Claims.

If an ancillary personal representative is appointed pursuant to this rule, the procedure for filing, objecting to, and suing on claims shall be the same as for other estates, except that the ancillary personal representative appointed shall have not fewer than 30 days from the date of his appointment within which to object to any claim filed. An objection to a claim shall be in writing and shall be filed within 4 months from the first publication of notice of administration or within 30 days from the timely filing of a claim, whichever occurs later. *1365(b) Objection to Proof of Claim.

An objection to a personal representative's proof of claim shall identify the particular item or items of the claim to which objection is made. (c) Service. A personal representative or other interested person who files an objection to a claim shall serve a copy by registered or certified mail or by delivery on the claimant or claimant's attorney of record within 10 days after the filing of the objection, and also on the personal representative if the objection is filed by an interested person other than the personal representative- id) Notice to Claimant.

An objection shall contain a statement that the claimant is limited to a period of 30 days from the date of service of an objection within which to bring an action as provided by law. Committee Notes This rule represents an implementation of the procedure found in section 733.705, Florida Statutes, and adds a requirement to furnish notice of the time limitation in which an independent action or declaratory-action must be filed after objection to a claim.

The petition, in addition to reciting information required under these rules for petition for administration, shall include a statement of the facts constituting grounds on which relief is sought, and a statement of the contents of the will or, if available, a copy of the will. (c) Testimony.

The testimony of each witness in the proceeding shall be reduced to writing and filed and may be used as evidence in any contest of the will if the witness has died or moved from the state. (d) Order. The order admitting the will to probate shall state in full its terms and provisions. Committee Notes This rule represents a rule implementation of the procedure found in Bisection 733.207, Florida Statutes.

It is not intended to change the effect of the statute from which it was derived but has been reformatted to conform with the structure of these rules. It is not intended to create a new procedure or modify an existing procedure.

The committee believes that the last sentence of section (3) of the statute is substantive, and has not therefore been included here. This rule replaces a prior rule of the same number and is intended to track the statute more closely than the prior rule. Rule Reference FRRFla.Prob.R. 5.610 Execution by guardian. RULE 5.550. PETITION TO DETERMINE INCAPACITY (a) Contents.

The petition to determine incapacity shall be verified by the petitioner and shall state: (1) the name, age, and present address of the petitioner and the petitioner's relationship to the alleged incapacitated person; (2) the name, age, county of residence, and present address of the alleged incapacitated person, and specify the primary language spoken by the alleged incapacitated person, if known; (3) that the petitioner believes the alleged incapacitated person to be incapacitated, the facts on which such belief is based, and the names and addresses of all persons known to the petitioner who have knowledge of such facts through personal observation; (4) the name and address of the alleged incapacitated person's attending or family physician, if known; (5) which rights the alleged incapacitated person is incapable of exercising to the best of the petitioner's knowledge; and, if the petitioner has insufficient experience to make that judgment, the petitioner shall so indicate; (6) whether plenary or limited guardianship is sought for the alleged incapacitated person; and (7) the names, relationships, and addresses of the next of kin of the alleged incapacitated person, specifying the dates of birth of any who are minors, to the extent known to the petitioner. (b) Notice.

(1) Contents. The notice of filing the petition to determine incapacity shall state: (A) the time and place of the hearing to inquire into the capacity of the alleged incapacitated person; (B) that an attorney has been appointed to represent such person; and (C) that if the court determines that such person is incapable of exercising any of the rights enumerated in the petition a guardian may be appointed.

(2) Service on Alleged Incapacitated Person. The notice and a copy of the petition to determine incapacity shall be personally served by an elisor appointed by the court, who may be the court appointed counsel for the alleged incapacitated person.

The elisor shall read the notice to the alleged incapacitated person, but need not read the petition. A return of service shall be filed by the elisor certifying that the notice and petition have been served on and the notice read to the alleged incapacitated person. No responsive pleading is required and no default may be entered for failure to file a responsive pleading.

The allegations of the petition are deemed denied. (3) Service on Others. A copy of the petition and the notice shall also be served on counsel for the alleged incapacitated person, and on all next of kin. Committee Notes Rule History 1980 Revision: Implements 1979 amendments to section 744.331, Florida Statutes. 1984 Revision: Change in title of rule. Editorial changes and adds a provision for *1369service of petition.

Committee notes revised. 1988 Revision: Committee notes revised. Citation form changes in committee notes. 1989 Revision by Ad Hoc Committee: The committee realized that formal notice as defined in Rule 5.040(a)(1) requires the recipient of notice to file a responsive pleading within twentyO days after the service of the notice.

The committee believed that to impose such a requirement on the alleged incapacitated person would contravene the legislative intent of the 1989 revisions to Chapter 744, Florida Statutes. The committee observed that the time required for appointment of mandatory appointed counsel might render a responsive pleading within twenty days impossible for the alleged incapacitated person.

The committee concluded that, procedurally, notice upon the alleged incapacitated person should occur in the same manner as formal notice in Rule 5.040, but the required response under that rule should not be imposed upon the alleged incapacitated person. 1991 Revision: Implements 1989 amendments to sections 744.3201 and 744.331, Florida Statutes, and 1990 technical amendments.

(b) Petition to Determine Incapacity. No petition to determine incapacity need be filed. (c) Petition for Appointment of Guardian.

The petition shall be verified by the petitioner and shall state: (1) the facts to establish venue; (2) the petitioner's residence and post office address; (3) the name, age, social security number, and residence and post office address of the minor; (4) the names and addresses of the parents of the minor and if none, the next of kin known to the petitioner; (5) the name, social security or tax identification number, and residence and post office address of the proposed guardian, and that the proposed guardian is qualified to serve; or, that a willing and qualified guardian has not been located; (6) the proposed guardian's relationship to and any previous association with the minor; (7) the reasons why the proposed guardian should be appointed; and (8) the nature and value of the property subject to the guardianship. (d) Notice.

Formal notice of the petition for appointment of guardian shall be served on any parent who is not a petitioner or, if there is no parent, on the persons with whom the minor resides and on such other persons as the court may direct. (e) Initial and Annual Guardianship Reports.

(1) The initial guardianship report shall consist only of the verified inventory. The annual guardianship report shall consist only of the annual accounting. (2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the guardian need not file an initial or annual guardianship plan.

(3) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the guardian need not serve a copy of the initial guardianship report and the annual guardianship reports on the ward if the ward is under the age of 14 years. *1370(f) Inspection of Inventory or Accounting. Unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown, any inventory, amended or supplementary inventory, or accounting is subject to inspection only by the clerk, the ward or the ward's attorney, and the guardian or the guardian's attorney.

Committee Notes The provisions of chapter 744, Florida Statutes, and the guardianship rules enacted in 1989 leave some uncertainty with respect to the procedural requirements in guardianships for minors who are not incapacitated persons. This rule is intended to address only certain procedures with respect to the establishment and administration of guardianships over minors.

The committee believes that certain provisions of the guardianship law and rules apply to both guardianships of minors as well as guardianships of incapacitated persons and no change has been suggested with respect to such rules.

Because no adjudication of a minor is required by statute, it is contemplated that appointment of a guardian for a minor may be accomplished without a hearing. RULE 5.620, INVENTORY (a) Inventory. Within 60 days after issuance of letters, the guardian of the property shall file a verified inventory as required by law. All property not in the guardian's possession as of the date the inventory is filed shall be so identified. (h) Amended or Supplemental Inventory. If the guardian of the property learns of any property not included in the inventory, or learns that the description in the inventory is inaccurate, the guardian shall, within 30 days of this discovery, file a verified amended or supplemental inventory showing the change. (c) Substantiating Papers.

Unless ordered by the court, the guardian need not file the papers substantiating the inventory. Upon reasonable written request, the guardian of the property shall make the substantiating papers available for examination to those persons entitled to receive or inspect the inventory. (d) Safe Deposit Box Inventory. If the ward has a safe deposit box, a copy of the safe deposit box inventory shall be filed as part of the verified inventory. *1373Committee Notes Rule History 1977 Revision: Change in committee notes to conform to statutory renumbering.

Committee notes revised. Citation form change in committee notes. 1989 Revision: Prior rule deleted and replaced by temporary emergency rule. 1991 Revision: Former FPRule 5.620(b) has been deleted as partly substantive and addressed in section 744.381, Florida Statutes, and the procedural part is unnecessary.

The committee recognizes the conflict between this rule and section 744.362, Florida Statutes, which requires the filing of the initial guardianship report (which includes the inventory) within 60 days after appointment.

The committee believes this provision, which attempts to regulate when a paper must be filed with the court, is procedural and that a guardian may not receive letters of guardianship empowering the guardian to act contemporaneously with the appointment.

Therefore, the issuance of letters is a more practical time from which to measure the beginning of the time period for the accomplishment of this act. 1992 Revision: Citation form changes in committee notes. SETTLEMENT OF MINORS' CLAIMS (a) Time of Settlement. Claims on behalf of minors may be settled either before or after an action is filed. (b) Petition. The petition for approval of a settlement shall contain: (1) the name, residence address, and date of birth of the minor; (2) the name and address of any guardian appointed for the minor; (3) the name and residence address of the natural guardians or other persons having legal custody of the minor; *1375(4) a statement disclosing the interests of any natural or court-appointed guardian whose interest may be in conflict with that of the minor; (5) a description of the cause of action in which the minor's interest arises; (6) a summary of the terms of the proposed settlement; and (7) copies of all agreements, releases, or other documents to be executed on behalf of the minor. (c) Notice.

Notice of the petition shall be given to the court-appointed guardians for the minor, to the natural guardians or other persons with legal custody of the minor, to the minor if age 14 or older, and to the minor's next of kin if required by the court- Cd) Guardian Ad Litem.

The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem on behalf of a minor, without bond or notice, with respect to any proposed settlement that exceeds $25,000 and affects the interests of the minor, if: (1) there is no court-appointed guardian of the minor; (2) the court-appointed guardian may have an interest adverse to the minor; or (3) the court determines that representation of the minor's interest is otherwise inadequate. (e) Valuation of Proposed Settlement.

A proposed settlement is deemed to exceed $25,000 if the gross amount payable exceeds $25,000, without reduction to reflect present value or fees and costs. (f) Report. A guardian ad litem appointed with respect to a proposed settlement affecting the interests of a minor shall, not later than 5 days prior to the hearing on a petition for order authorizing settlement, file and serve a report indicating the guardian ad litem's determination regarding whether the proposed settlement will be in the best interest of the minor.

The report shall include: (1)a statement of the facts of the minor's claim and the terms of the proposed settlement, including any benefits to any persons or parties with related claims; (2) a list of the persons interviewed and documents reviewed by the guardian ad litem in evaluating the minor's claim and proposed settlement; and (3) the guardian ad litem's analysis of whether the proposed settlement will be in the best interest of the minor.

A copy of the report shall be served on those persons on whom service is required in subdivision (c) of this rule. Committee Notes When a civil action is pending, the petition for approval of settlement should be filed in that civil action.

In all other circumstances, the petition for approval of settlement should be filed in the same court and assigned to a judge who would preside over a petition for appointment of guardian of a minor. The total settlement to be considered under subdivisions (d) and (e) is not limited to the amounts received only by the minor, but includes all settlement payments or proceeds received by all parties to the claim or action.

For example, the proposed settlement may have a gross value of $30,000, with $15,000 payable to the minor and $15,000 payable to another party. In that instance the total proposed settlement exceeds $25,000. Further, the “gross amount payable” under subdivision (e) is the total sum payable, without reducing the settlement amount by fees and costs that might be paid from the proceeds of the settlement.

For example, if the proposed settlement is $30,000 but $10,000 of that sum will be paid to the attorneys representing the minor’s interest in the action, the “gross amount payable” still exceeds $25,000. Likewise, the “gross amount payable” cannot be reduced to reflect the present value of the proposed settlement on behalf of the minor. Rule History 1992 Revision: New rule.

When the ward is adjudicated incapacitated while engaged in any unincorporated business or venture, the court may authorize the guardian to continue the business or venture for a reasonable time under the supervision of the court. (b) Petition.

Before an order is made under subdivision (a), the guardian shall file a verified petition, alleging sufficient facts to make it appear that it is in the best interest of the ward’s estate to continue the business or venture. (c) Order.

The order authorizing the continuance of the business or venture may empower the guardian to make contracts necessary to conduct the business or venture and to incur debts and pay out money in the proper conduct of the business or venture.

The net profits only of the business or venture are to be added to the assets of the ward's estate. (d) Accounts and Reports. In the conduct of the business or venture, the guardian shall keep full and accurate accounts of all receipts and expenditures and make reports as the court requires. (e) Discontinuance of Business. Any person interested in the ward's estate may at any time petition the court for an order requiring the guardian to discontinue and to wind up the business or venture, and the court, after notice to the guardian, shall enter such order thereon as is in the best interest of the ward's estate.

RESIGNATION OR DISQUALIFICATION OF GUARDIAN; APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR (a) Resignation and Petition for Discharge. A guardian seeking to resign shall file a resignation and petition for discharge. (b) Contents.

The resignation and petition for discharge shall state: (1) that the guardian wishes to resign and be relieved of all duties as guardian; (2) the amount of compensation to be paid to the guardian and to the attorneys, *1377 accountants, or other agents employed by the guardian; and (3) the names and addresses of the successor guardian and the successor guardian's attorney, or that a successor guardian has not yet been appointed or duly qualified. (c) Final Report.

A resigning guardian of the property shall file a final report showing receipts, disbursements, amounts reserved for unpaid and anticipated costs and fees, and other relevant financial information from the date of the previous annual accounting, and a list of assets to be turned over to the successor guardian. (d) Notice. A notice shall be served stating that: (1) any objection shall be in writing and shall state with particularity each item to which the objection is directed and the grounds on which the objection is based; (2) any objection to the resignation, petition for discharge, or final report shall be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the petition for discharge; and (3) within 90 days after filing of the objection, a notice of hearing thereon shall be served or the objection is abandoned. (e) Service.

A copy of the resignation, petition for discharge, final report, and notice of resignation and petition for discharge shall be served on the ward, any surety on the guardian's bond, any successor guardian, and such other persons as the court may direct. (f) Objections. Objections shall be in the form and be filed within the time set forth in the notice of resignation and petition for discharge.

A copy of the objections shall be served by the objector on the ward, all guardians, any surety on the guardian's bond, and any successor guardian. (g) Disposition of Objections. Any interested person may set a hearing on the objections. Notice of the hearing shall be served on the guardian, the successor guardian, if any, and any other interested persons. If a notice of hearing on the objections is not served within 90 days of filing of the objections, the objections will be deemed abandoned. (h) Discharge.

The guardian's resignation shall not be accepted and the guardian shall not be discharged until all objections have been withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved and a successor guardian has been appointed and duly qualified.

After all objections have been withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved, if the court is satisfied that the resigning guardian has faithfully discharged the duties of the guardianship and the interests of the ward are protected, and the resigning guardian of the property has delivered the assets of the ward, all guardianship records, and all money due to the ward from the guardian to the remaining or successor guardian, the court shall enter an order accepting resignation of guardian and granting discharge. (i) Waiver.

The successor guardian, and any other interested person, may in writing waive: (1) any portion of the resignation and petition for discharge, including the final report; (2) the time for filing objections; (3) service of the resignation and petition for discharge; and (4) service of the notice of resignation and petition for discharge. (j) Disqualification.

Any guardian who is improperly appointed, or who becomes disqualified to act after appointment, shall immediately file a resignation and petition for discharge and proceed in accordance with this rule. (k) Nonresident Guardians. Nonresident guardians appointed before October 1, 1989, shall not be automatically disqualified to serve and shall not be required to resign and initiate their own removal.

PROCEEDINGS FOR REMOVAL OF GUARDIAN (a) Notice.

Proceedings for removal of a guardian may be instituted by a court, by any surety or other interested person, or by the ward, and formal notice of the petition for removal of a guardian shall be served on all guardians, other interested persons, next of kin, and the ward.

The pleading shall state with particularity the reasons why the guardian should be removed. (b) Accounting. A removed guardian shall file with the court an accounting for the guardianship within 20 days after the guardian's removal. A copy of the accounting shall be served on the successor guardian and the ward. (c) Transfer of Property and Records.

The removed guardian (or the guardian's heirs, personal representative, or surety) shall turn over all the property of the ward in the removed guardian's control and all guardianship records to the duly qualified successor.

The successor guardian shall, or the ward may, demand of the removed guardian (or the guardian's heirs, personal representative, or surety) all of those items. (d) Failure to Comply. If a removed guardian fails to file a true, complete, and final accounting for the guardianship or to turn over to the successor all property of the ward in the removed guardian's control and all guardianship records, the court shall issue a show-cause order.

The Florida guardian may file a petition for discharge when the domicile of a resident ward has changed to a foreign jurisdiction, the foreign court having jurisdiction over the ward at the ward's new domicile has appointed a foreign guardian, and the foreign guardian has qualified and posted a bond in the amount required by the foreign court. (b) Contents of Petition.

The petition for discharge shall state: (1) that the grounds set forth in subdivision (a) have occurred; (2) that the guardian has fully administered the Florida guardianship; and (3) the amount of compensation to be paid to the guardian and to the attorneys, accountants, or other agents employed by the guardian. (c) Final Report.

The Florida guardian of the property shall file a final report showing receipts, disbursements, amounts reserved for unpaid and anticipated costs and fees, and other relevant financial information from the date of the previous annual accounting, and a list of the assets to be turned over to the foreign guardian. (d) Notice.

The Florida guardian of the property shall publish a notice as required by law, which shall state: (1) the name of the ward; (2) the file number of the guardianship; (3) the designation and address of the court; (4) the name and address of the guardian and the guardian's attorney; (5) the name and address of the foreign guardian and the foreign guardian's attorney, if any; (6) the date of first publication; (7) that a petition for discharge has been filed upon the grounds of change of domicile of the ward; (8) the date the guardian will apply for discharge; (9) that the jurisdiction of the ward will be transferred to the foreign jurisdiction; (10) that any objection shall be in writing and shall state with particularity each item to which the objection is directed and the grounds on which the objection is based; (11) that any objection to the final report or the petition for discharge shall be filed within the later of 30 days from the date of service of the petition for discharge or the date of first publication of the notice; and (12) that within 90 days after filing of the objection, a notice of hearing thereon shall be served or the objection is abandoned. (e) Service.

A copy of the petition for discharge and of the notice of petition for discharge shall be served on the foreign guardian and such other persons as the court may direct. (f) Objections. Objections shall be in the form and be filed within the time set forth in the notice of petition for discharge. A copy of the objections shall be served by the objector on the Florida guardian and the foreign guardian. (g) Disposition of Objections.

Any interested person may set a hearing on the objections. Notice of the hearing shall be served on the Florida guardian, the foreign guardian, and any other interested persons. If a notice of hearing on the objections is not served within 90 days of filing of the objections, the objections will be deemed abandoned. *1380(h) Discharge.

The Florida guardian may not be discharged until all objections have been withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved. After all objections have been withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved, if the court is satisfied that the Florida guardian has faithfully discharged the duties of the guardianship and the interests of the ward are protected, and the Florida guardian of the property has delivered the assets of the ward to the foreign guardian, the court shall enter an order of discharge. (i) Waiver.

The foreign guardian, and any other interested person, may in writing waive: (1) any portion of the petition for discharge, including the final report; (2) the time for filing objections; (3) service of the petition for discharge; and (4) service of the notice of petition for discharge. When the ward has become sui juris, has died, or has been restored to capacity, or when the guardian has been unable to locate the ward after diligent search, or, for a guardian of the property, when the property subject to the guardianship has been exhausted, the guardian shall file a petition for discharge.

A guardian of the person is discharged without further proceeding upon filing a certified copy of the ward's death certificate. (b) Contents of Petition. The petition for discharge shall state: (1) the reason for termination of the guardianship; (2) that the guardian has fully administered the guardianship; and (3) the amount of compensation to be paid to the guardian and to the attorneys, accountants, or other agents employed by the guardian. (c) Final Report.

The guardian of the property shall file a final report showing receipts, disbursements, amounts reserved for unpaid and anticipated costs and fees, and other relevant financial information from the date of the previous annual accounting, and a list of the assets to be turned over to the person entitled to them. (d) Notice. A notice shall be served stating: *1381(1) that any objection shall be in writing and shall state with particularity each item to which the objection is directed and the grounds on which the objection is based; (2) that any objection to the final report or the petition for discharge shall be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the petition for discharge; and (3) that within 90 days after filing of the objection, a notice of hearing thereon shall be served or the objection is abandoned. (e) Service.

The guardian applying for discharge shall serve a copy of the petition for discharge and final report on the ward, on the personal representative of a deceased ward, or if there are no assets justifying qualification of a personal representative for the estate of a deceased ward, on the known next of kin of the deceased ward, or such other persons as the court may direct; provided however, that a guardian of the property who is subsequently appointed personal representative shall serve a copy of the petition for discharge and final report on all beneficiaries of the ward's estate. (f) Objections.

All persons served shall have 30 days to file objections to the petition for discharge and final report. The objections shall state with particularity the items to which the objections are directed and shall state the grounds on which the objections are based. Copies of the objections shall be served by the objector on the guardian. Any interested person may set a hearing on the objections.

Notice of the hearing shall be served on the guardian and any other interested persons. If a notice of hearing on the objections is not served within 90 days of filing of the objections, the objections will be deemed abandoned.

The guardian may not be discharged until all objections have been withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved, and the petition for discharge of the guardian is granted by the court. (g) Discharge. The guardian may not be discharged until all objections are withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved.

After all objections are withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved, and if it appears that the guardian has made full and complete distribution of the ward's assets to the person entitled to them and has otherwise faithfully discharged the duties of the guardian, the court shall grant the petition for discharge and enter an order of discharge. If objections are filed and are not withdrawn, abandoned, or judicially resolved, the court shall conduct a hearing in the same manner as for a hearing on objections to annual guardianship plans.

After hearing, if the court is satisfied that the guardian has faithfully discharged the duties of the guardianship and the interests of the ward are protected, and the guardian has rendered a complete and accurate final report and has delivered the assets of the ward to the person entitled to them, the court shall enter an order of discharge. (h)Waiver. Any portion of the petition for discharge, including the final report, or the time for filing of objections may be waived by any interested person.

INITIAL GUARDIANSHIP REPORT (a) Contents and Filing. An initial guardianship report shall be filed within 60 days after the issuance of letters of guardianship.

The guardian of the property shall file the initial guardianship report consisting of the verified inventory. The guardian of the person shall file the initial guardianship report consisting of the guardianship plan. (b) Service. Copies of the initial guardianship report shall be served on the ward; unless the ward is a minor under the age of 14 years or is totally incapacitated, and the attorney for the ward, if any.

With approval of the court, service on the ward may be accomplished by serving the attorney for the ward. Committee Notes The committee recognizes the conflict between this rule and section 744.362, Florida Statutes, which requires the filing of the initial guardianship report (which includes the inventory) within 60 days after appointment..

The committee believes this provision, which attempts to regulate when a paper must be filed with the court, is procedural and that a guardian may not receive letters of guardianship empowering the guardian to act contemporaneously with the appointment.

Therefore, the issuance of letters is a more practical time from which to measure the beginning of the time period for the accomplishment of this act. In the event the guardian of the property and the guardian of the person are not the same entity or person, they shall make a good faith effort to jointly file the initial guardianship report. 5.700 Objection to guardianship reports. RULE 5.695. ANNUAL GUARDIANSHIP REPORTS (a) Contents and Filing. (1) Guardian of the Person. Unless the court requires reporting on a calendar year basis, the guardian of the person shall file with the court an annual guardianship plan within 3090 days after the last day of the anniversary month of the guardian's appointment in which the letters of guardianship were issued.

The plan must cover shall be for the year ending on the last day of such anniversary month. If the court requires reporting on a calendar year basis, the guardianship plan shall be filed on or before January 31 or April 1 of the following year.

(2) Guardian of the Property. Unless the court requires or authorizes reporting on a fiscal year basis, the guardian of the property shall file an annual accounting with the court on or before April 1 of each year. The annual accounting shall cover the preceding annual accounting period. If the court requires or authorizes reporting on a fiscal year basis, the annual accounting shall be filed on or before the first day of the fourth month after the end of the fiscal year. (b) Service.

Copies of the annual plan and accounting shall be served on the ward, unless the ward is a minor under the age of 14 years or is totally incapacitated, and the attorney for the ward, if any. With the approval of the court, service on the ward may be accomplished by serving the attorney for the ward.

The guardian shall serve copies on such other persons as the court may direct. Committee Notes The annual guardianship report consists of the annual plan for the guardian of the person and the annual accounting for the guardian of the property.

For annual guardianship reports regarding minors, see FPRule 5.555. With approval of the court, service on the ward may be accomplished by service on the attorney for the ward, if any. The committee was concerned that actual service on a ward of the accounting or guardianship plan may give uninterested persons access to financial or personal information to the detriment of the ward.

The committee believes that under such circumstances, the guardian of the property could seek an order under section 744.371(5), Florida Statutes, even if the ward's circumstances were set out in detail in a pleading other than the annual guardianship report. Such court order may be sought in appropriate circumstances at the time of the initial hearing to determine incapacity.

Rule History 1975 Revision: Substantially the same as section 744.427(1), (2), and (4), Florida Statutes, and section 744.437, Florida Statutes, with editorial changes and providing for the waiving, by a ward who has become sui juris or by the personal representative of a deceased ward, of the filing of an annual accounting.

The rule requires the guardian of the property of a ward to appear before the court at the time he files his annual accounting or at such time the court shall determine in order that the court may inquire as to any matter relating to the physical and financial well-being of the ward. This appears to be in conflict with section 744.437, Florida Statutes, which refers to "every guardian" but in the same sentence it refers to "at the time the guardian files his annual return" and only the guardian of the property is required to file an annual accounting.

1977 Revision: No change in rule. The guardian of the property shall file an annual accounting as required by law. The annual accounting shall include: (1) a full and correct account of the receipts and disbursements of all of the ward's property over which the guardian has control and a statement of the ward's property on hand at the end of the accounting period; and (2) a copy of the statements of all of the ward's cash accounts as of the end of the accounting period from each institution where the cash is deposited.

(b) Substantiating Papers.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the guardian need not file the papers substantiating the annual accounting. Upon reasonable written request, the guardian of the property shall make the substantiating papers available for examination to persons entitled to receive or inspect the annual accounting. Substantiating papers need not be filed with the court unless so ordered. (c) Interim Inspection of Records.

Upon reasonable written request and notice, the guardian of the property shall make all material financial records pertaining to the guardianship available for inspections to those persons entitled to receive or inspect the annual accounting. The court may appoint general masters to review guardianship accountings and plans. General masters shall be members of The Florida Bar and shall continue in office until removed by the court. The order appointing a general master shall be recorded. Each general master shall take the oath required of officers of the court by the Florida Consti*1385tution.

The oath shall be recorded before the master begins to act. (b) Special Masters. In connection with the court's review of guardianship account-ings and plans, the court may appoint members of The Florida Bar as special masters for any particular service required by the court. Special masters shall be governed by all laws and rules relating to general masters except special masters shall not be required to take an oath unless specifically required by the court.

For good cause shown, the court may appoint a person other than a member of The Florida Bar as a special master. (c) General Powers and Duties. Every master shall act under the direction of the court. Process issued by a master shall be directed as provided by law. All grounds for disqualification of a judge shall apply to masters. (d) Hearings. Hearings before any master may be held in the county where the action is pending, or at any other place by order of the court for the convenience of the witnesses or the parties.

A master shall give notice of hearings to all parties. If any party fails to appear, the master may proceed ex parte or may continue the hearing to a future day, with notice to the absent party. The master shall proceed with reasonable diligence and the least practicable delay. Any party may apply to the court for an order directing the master to accelerate the proceedings and to make a report promptly.

Evidence shall be taken in writing or by electronic recording by the master or by some other person under the master's authority in the master's presence and shall be filed with the master's report. The master may examine and take testimony from the parties and their witnesses under oath, on all matters authorized by the court for review by the master and may require production of all books, papers, writings, vouchers, and other documents applicable to those matters.

The master shall admit only evidence that would be admissible in court. The master may take all actions concerning evidence that may be taken by the court. (e) Master's Report. The master's report shall contain a description of the matters considered and the master's conclusions and any recommendations. No part of any statement of facts, account, charge, deposition, examination, or answer used before the master shall be recited. (f) Filing Report; Service; Exceptions.

The master shall file a report with the court and serve copies on the parties. The parties may serve exceptions to the report within 10 days from the date the report is served on them. If no exceptions are timely filed, the court shall take appropriate action on the report. All timely filed exceptions may be heard by the court on reasonable notice by any party.

RULE 5.800. APPLICATION OF REVISED CHAPTER 744 TO EXISTING GUARDIANSHIPS (a) Prior Adjudication of Incompetency. When an adjudication of incompetency has taken place under chapter 744, Florida Statutes, before October 1, 1989, no readjudication of incapacity shall be required. (b) Annual Guardianship Reports. Guardians appointed before October 1, 1989, shall file annual guardianship reports as required by law.

Committee Notes Rule History 1989 Revision by Ad Hoc Committee: The committee adopted a position that guardians appointed before the effective date of the 1989 revisions to Chapter 744;

Florida Statutes, should comply with all sections of the law that apply to future acts of the guardian.

For example, all guardians will in the future file annual reports and will be responsible for the continuing well-being of their wards. The committee recognized a distinction between those actions that will necessarily occur on a continuing basis throughout the guardianship and those actions that happen at a particular moment in time but are not necessarily ongoing duties.

There are two and only two specific examples to which the statutory reforms would not apply retrospectively if the above distinction is adopted. First, the initial adjudication of incapacity occurs only once in any guardianship.

Although guardianships are reevaluated annually, the statute does not *1387contemplate a complete readjudication procedure every year. Therefore, the committee concluded that the initial adjudicatory hearing need not be repeated for wards adjudicated incompetent before October 1, 1989.

Second, as concerns nonresident. guardians appointed before October 1, 1989, normally, a guardian is appointed only once at the beginning of the guardianship. While these nonresident guardians would be expected to obey all provisions of the law prospectively, they would not be required to initiate their own removal. 1991 Revision: Editorial changes in first sentence of (a), and rest of subdivision deleted as unnecessary.

Subdivision (b) has been transferred to FPRrule 5.650. Date reference no longer required in (c), and modified to make filing requirement of preexisting guardianships consistent with the current statutory provisions. 1992 Revision: Citation form changes in committee notes. EXPEDITED JUDICIAL INTERVENTION CONCERNING MEDICAL TREATMENT PROCEDURES (a)Petition. Any proceeding for expedited judicial intervention concerning medical treatment procedures may be brought by any interested adult person and shall be commenced by the filing of a verified petition which states: (1) the name and address of the petitioner; (2) the name and location of the person who is the subject of the petition (hereinafter referred to as the “patient”); (3) the relationship of the petitioner to the patient; (4) the names, relationship to the patient, and addresses if known to the petitioner, of: (A) the patient’s spouse and adult children; (B) the patient’s parents (if the patient is a minor); (C) if none of the above, the patient’s next of kin; (D) any guardian and any court-appointed health care surrogatedecision-maker; (E) any person designated by the patient in a living will or other document to exercise the patient’s health care decision in the event of the patient’s incapacity; (F) the administrator of the hospital, nursing home, or other facility where the patient is located; (G) the patient's principal treating physician and other physicians known to have provided any medical opinion or advice about any condition of the patient relevant to this petition; and (H) all other persons the petitioner believes may have information concerning the expressed wishes of the patient; and (5) facts sufficient to establish the need for the relief requested, including, but not limited to, facts to support the allegation that the patient lacks the capacity to make the requisite medical treatment decision. (b) Supporting Documentation.

Any affidavits and supporting documentation, including any living will or designation of health care decision-maker, shall be attached to the petition. (c) Notice. Unless waived by the court, notice of the petition and the preliminary hearing shall be served on the following persons who have not joined in the petition or otherwise consented to the proceedings: (I) the patient; (1/8)(2) the patient's spouse and the patient's parents, if the patient is a minor; (2)(3) the patient's adult children; *1388(g)(4) any guardian and any court-appointed health care decision-maker; (4)(5) any person designated by the patient in a living will or other document to exercise the patient's health care decision in the event of the patient's incapacity; (b)(6) the administrator of the hospital, nursing home, or other facility where the patient is located; (6)(7) the patient's principal treating physician and other physicians believed to have provided any medical opinion or advice about any condition of the patient relevant to this petition; (7)(8) all other persons the petitioner believes may have information concerning the expressed wishes of the patient; and (g)(9) such other persons as the court may direct. (d) Hearing.

A preliminary hearing on the petition shall be held within 72 hours after the filing of the petition. At that time the court shall review the petition and supporting documentation. In its discretion the court shall either: (1) rule on the relief requested immediately after the preliminary hearing; or (2) conduct an evidentiary hearing not later than 4 days after the preliminary hearing and rule on the relief requested immediately after the evidentiary hearing.

Committee Notes This rule was submitted by the committee in response to the request contained in footnote 17 of In re Guardianship of Browning, 568 So.2d 4 (Fla.1990). See also Cruzan by Cruzan v. Director, Missouri Department of Health, — U.S. —, 110 S.Ct. 2841, 111 L.Ed.2d 224 (1990).

The promulgation of this rule is not intended to imply that judicial intervention is required to terminate life-prolonging procedures. Practitioners should note that the criteria and standards of proof contained in Browning differ from the criteria and standards of proof presently existing in chapter 765, Florida Statutes, the Life-Prolonging Procedure Act of Florida.

Rule History 1991 Revision: New rule. 1992 Revision: This rule was created on an emergency basis and on further review, the committee decided it needed to clarify that the petition should include an allegation that the patient lacks capacity to make the requisite medical treatment decision, and that the patient should receive notice of the petition and hearing.
