UNOPPOSED MOTION TO ABATE APPEAL _____ TO THE
HONORABLE THIRD COURT OF APPEALS: Pursuant to Tex. R. App.

P. 2 and 10.1, Appellants move to abate this appeal for 90 days. In support of the requested 90-day abatement, Appellants would show the following: 1 1. This cause concerns the validity of administrative rules adopted by the Texas Racing Commission ("Commission") that authorize pari-mutuel wagering on historical horse racing. 2.

The district court below held that the Commission's adoption of the historical racing rules in August 2014 constituted an ultra vires act, and that those rules are therefore invalid. 3. Appellants have appealed the district court's decision to this Court. 4.

The Commission is currently considering its future plans with respect to the issue of historical racing. At this time, it is unclear what the Commission will ultimately decide. For example, the Commission could decide to maintain its current position in support of historical racing. Alternatively, it could decide to maintain its current support of historical racing, but do so through a new rule.

Or it could decide to switch gears and abandon the issue of historical racing entirely and permanently, by announcing in no uncertain terms that the Commission will repeal the rule and will not replace it with another historical racing rule at any time in the future. Depending on which course the Commission ultimately suggests, that decision may or may not impact the status of this appeal.

5. The Commission is expected to make a final decision about historical racing, one way or another, in or around August 2015. Until then, there is no need for this Court or for the parties to expend further resources on this appeal. 2 6.

Accordingly, Appellants ask the Court to suspend or toll all current appellate deadlines and to abate the appeal for 90 days. The requested 90-day abatement will avoid a potentially needless waste of time and expense involved in briefing issues raised by both sides in this Court. 7. Appellees do not agree with Appellants' characterization of the facts or rationale expressed in this Motion, but Appellees do not oppose the granting of the relief sought.

WHEREFORE, Appellants pray that the Court grant this unopposed motion to abate and render an order suspending or tolling all existing appellate deadlines and abating this appeal for a period of 90 days. Appellants also request such other and further relief to which it may be entitled. DATED: June 15, 2015 Respectfully submitted, By: /s/ J. Bruce Bennett J. Bruce Bennett 3 Martha S. Dickie, J.
