

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, FOURTEENTH DISTRICT, HOUSTON

Akhil Patel v. Nadia Hussain

Patel · No. 14-14-00459-CV · Decided April 14, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is Appellee's unopposed motion requesting an eight-day extension of time to file an appellate brief in the Fourteenth Court of Appeals of Texas. The motion cites counsel's competing deadlines and notes that one prior thirty-day extension had been granted.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Court of Appeals of Texas, Fourteenth District, Houston
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	April 14, 2015
DOCKET	14-14-00459-CV
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Appellee filed an unopposed motion requesting an eight-day extension of time to file her appellate brief.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	nonprecedential
PARTIES	Akhil Patel v. Nadia Hussain

TOPICS

appellate procedure

civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

civil procedure

appellate procedure

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appellee should receive an eight-day extension of time to file her appellate brief.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The appellee's brief was due on April 15, 2015. Counsel identified numerous competing obligations during the preceding thirty days, including responses to dispositive motions, summary-judgment proceedings, mediation, another appellate brief deadline, and scheduled presentations. Appellee sought an eight-day extension and represented that the request was unopposed and not made for purposes of delay.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appellee's brief was due April 15, 2015. Appellee requested an eight-day extension to April 23, 2015, citing counsel's competing litigation deadlines, hearings, mediation, and continuing legal education presentations. The motion states that appellee had previously received one thirty-day extension and that appellant's counsel was unopposed.

DISPOSITION

other