Allstate Fire and Casualty Insurance Company and Lisa Graves; Cause no. 14-DCV-215228; in the 434th District Court, Fort Bend County, Texas RESPONDENT'S SECOND MOTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR RESPONSE TO THE HONORABLE COURT OF APPEALS: Respondents, William Howard and Charlene Howard, file this Second Motion to Extend their time to file a response brief to the Realtor's Petition for Writ of Mandamus.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard show the Court as follows: I. 1. Real Parties in Interest timely filed their response on the due date of March 9, 2015 but the filing was rejected because it was two separate filings (i.e., brief and appendix) and should have been one continuous filing. The filing will be properly done on March 10, 2015. Real Parties in Interest respectfully request the Court grant a 1-day extension of the due date to timely file their response. 2. The requested continuance of the response due date is not requested for 1 purposes of delay, harassment or any improper purpose. It is requested so that justice may be done. 3.

The undersigned attorney and Realtor's counsel did not have an opportunity to confer regarding this motion given the short notice and imminent need to file it. WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Respondents, William and Charlene Howard, respectfully request that the Court GRANT the requested relief and reset the due date for a response to the Petition for Mandamus for 1-day beyond the current due date of March 9, 2015 and grant Real Parties in Interest all further relief, to which they may be justly entitled.
