

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

Sharon Schaefer v. St. Bernard Parish

No. 19-30896, United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit (August 11, 2020)

SUMMARY

In this unpublished Fifth Circuit per curiam opinion, the court affirmed summary judgment against the plaintiff on her Title VII retaliation and hostile work environment claims, finding no error in the district court's ruling. The case addresses the standards for proving retaliation and hostile work environment under Title VII, but does not establish new precedent.

USDC No. 2:16-CV-17784

Before Jolly, Jones, and Willett, Circuit Judges. Per Curiam:* After reviewing the record, studying the briefs, and hearing oral argument from counsel, we can discern no error in the district court's grant of summary judgment on the plaintiff's Title VII retaliation and hostile work environment claims. The judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED.¹ * Pursuant to 5th Circuit Rule 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5th Circuit Rule 47.5.4. ¹ See 5th Cir. R. 47.6.
