QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the pending appeal should be abated pursuant to appellee's motion.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The order contains no substantive factual findings concerning the underlying dispute. It reflects only that an appeal was pending and that appellee requested abatement.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal was pending before the First District Court of Appeals of Texas. Appellee filed a motion to abate on January 16, 2013. The court ordered the appeal abated until April 24, 2013, and directed that, absent an agreed motion to dismiss by that date, appellee's brief would be due on April 24, 2013.
