QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court should grant appellee's unopposed first motion to extend the deadline for filing appellee's brief.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The record reflected that appellant's appendix had been submitted on February 23, 2015, resubmitted on March 3, 2015, and remained unapproved because corrections to the cover sheet and service information were pending.

Appellee's counsel also cited other practice deadlines and requested additional time to prepare its brief. Appellant did not oppose the requested extension.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal was pending in the Fourth Court of Appeals of Texas. Appellant's appendix was submitted and resubmitted but had not yet been accepted, and appellee requested a thirty-day extension of the deadline for filing its brief, from March 12, 2015, to April 11, 2015. The document contains the motion and supporting certificates but no court order ruling on the request.
