

TENNESSEE COURT OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS

Eason, Adrienne v. Federal Express Corporation

2026 TN WC 18 · No. 2025-60-2340 · Decided March 9, 2026

SUMMARY

The Tennessee Court of Workers' Compensation Claims denied Adrienne Eason's request for medical benefits related to a left-knee mass arising after a 2023 workplace injury. The court held that her petition was untimely under Tennessee Code Annotated § 50-6-203 because it was filed more than one year after the employer's last voluntary benefit payment and that no applicable exception had been shown.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

TENNESSEE BUREAU OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION IN THE COURT OF WORKERS'
COMPENSATION CLAIMS AT NASHVILLE ADRIANNE EASON, Docket No. 2025-60-2340 Employee,
v. FEDERAL EXPRESS CORPORATION, State File No. 59712-2023 Employer, and INDEMNITY
INSURANCE COMPANY OF NORTH Judge Joshua D. Baker AMERICA, Carrier.

EXPEDITED ORDER DENYING BENEFITS At an expedited hearing on March 4, 2026, Ms. Eason requested medical treatment for a left-knee mass, which developed after an August 2, 2023 work injury. Federal Express asserted the statute of limitations bars Ms. Eason's claim because she did not file a petition within one year after the last payment on her claim.

Because Ms. Eason did not file her petition timely or raise any applicable exceptions to the limitations defense, the Court finds she is unlikely to prevail at a final hearing. Claim History While working for Federal Express on August 2, 2023, Ms. Eason strained her wrists, knees, and right ankle from jumping onto a loading dock to avoid being hit by a cargo tug.

She received treatment until August 21, 2023, when her authorized doctor discharged her at maximum recovery. 1 More than a year later, in October 2024, she noticed a lump below her left kneecap. Over the next several months, she tried to doctor it herself. Ultimately, she emailed Federal Express on March 18, 2025, to ask for medical treatment.

However, the claim's adjuster refused to authorize treatment because Ms. Eason had not filed a petition within one year from the last payment on her claim. At the hearing, Federal Express entered the adjuster's affidavit into evidence with an attached payment ledger showing the claim's last payment issued March 8, 2024.

After Federal Express refused her treatment, Ms. Eason filed her petition on April 10, 2025. Factual Findings and Legal Conclusions The Workers' Compensation Law governs when a petition must be filed where an employer paid benefits voluntarily, as here.

Under the statute, “the right to compensation is forever barred, unless a petition for benefit determination is filed... within one (1) year from the latter of the date of the last authorized treatment or the time the employer ceased to make payments of compensation to or on behalf of the employee.” Tenn. Code Ann. § 50-6-203(b)(2) (2025).

Here, Ms. Eason’s last date of authorized treatment was August 21, 2023. Federal Express last paid benefits March 8, 2024, making that “the latter” date. Ms. Eason filed her petition more than a year later, on April 10, 2025. Contrary to Ms. Eason’s argument at trial, the “issuing date of the last payment of compensation by the employer, not the date of its receipt shall constitute the time the employer ceased to make payments of compensation.” Carpenter v. Am.

Water Heater Co., 2024 TN Wrk. Comp. App. Bd. LEXIS 26, at *6-7 (July 12, 2024) (citing Tenn. Code Ann. § 50-6-203(c)). In Carpenter, issuance of the last voluntary payment of benefits to a medical provider triggered the running of the one-year statute of limitations. Given that, the Court’s decision is constrained by the date the last voluntary payment issued rather than the date the check cleared.

Further, the date Ms. Eason requested medical treatment is immaterial, where the law requires a petition. Also, Ms. Eason did not present any applicable exceptions to suggest her claim is not barred by the statute of limitations.

The Court finds Ms. Eason is unlikely to prevail at a final hearing given the date Federal Express last paid benefits and the date she filed her petition. 2 It is ORDERED as follows: 1. Ms. Eason’s request for benefits is denied at this time. 2.

The Court sets a status hearing for Tuesday, April 28, 2026, at 9:30 a.m. Central Time. The parties must call (615) 741-2113 or (855) 874-0474 to participate. Failure to call might result in a determination of the issues without your participation. ENTERED March 9, 2026. _____

To do so, you must: 1. Complete the enclosed form entitled “Notice of Appeal” and file it with the Clerk of the Court of Workers’ Compensation Claims before the expiration of the deadline. ³/₄ If the order being appealed is “expedited” (also called “interlocutory”), or if the order does not dispose of the case in its entirety, the notice of appeal must be filed within seven (7) business days of the date the order was filed. ³/₄ If the order being appealed is a “Compensation Order,” or if it resolves all issues in the case, the notice of appeal must be filed within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the Compensation Order was filed.

When filing the Notice of Appeal, you must serve a copy on the opposing party (or attorney, if represented). 2. You must pay, via check, money order, or credit card, a $75.00 filing fee within ten calendar days after filing the Notice of Appeal. Payments can be made in-person at any Bureau office or by U.S. mail, hand-delivery, or other delivery service.

3. You are responsible for ensuring a complete record is presented on appeal. If no court reporter was present at the hearing, you may request from the Court Clerk the audio recording of the hearing for a $25.00 fee. If you choose to submit a transcript as part of your appeal, which the Appeals Board has emphasized is important for a meaningful review of the case, a licensed court reporter must prepare the transcript, and you must file it with the Court Clerk.

After the Workers' Compensation Judge approves the record and the Court Clerk transmits it to the Appeals Board, a docketing notice will be sent to the parties. If neither party timely files an appeal with the Appeals Board, the Court Order becomes enforceable. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 50-6-239(d)(3) (expedited/interlocutory orders) and Tenn. Code Ann. § 50-6-239(c)(7) (compensation orders).
