PRACTICE AREAS

civil procedure prisoner litigation in forma pauperis proceedings appointment of counsel

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether plaintiff satisfied the statutory requirements to proceed in district court without prepaying fees or costs.
2. Whether plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel should be granted.

HOLDINGS

1. A prisoner seeking to proceed without prepaying fees or costs must submit a certified copy of the institutional trust-fund account statement for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint; because plaintiff failed to do so, his application was properly denied.
2. Appointment of counsel was denied because plaintiff had not properly shown indigence, had not completed the motion, and the case did not appear at that stage to present circumstances warranting appointment of counsel.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Federal law requires prisoners seeking to proceed without prepayment of fees to “submit a certified copy of the trust fund account statement (or institutional equivalent) for the prisoner for the 6- month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint.” ”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff, who is incarcerated, sought to proceed without prepaying the filing fee but did not submit the certified six-month inmate trust-account statement required by federal law. He also failed to complete his motion for appointment of counsel. The court further determined that plaintiff had not properly shown indigence and that appointment of counsel did not appear appropriate at that stage of the case.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed an application to proceed without prepaying fees or costs and a motion to appoint counsel. The district court denied both motions, allowed plaintiff until May 8, 2026, either to prepay the $405 filing fee or submit a proper application with a certified six-month inmate account statement, and warned that failure to do so would result in dismissal without further notice.
