

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, FIRST DISTRICT, HOUSTON

Bryan Black v. Smith Protective Services, Inc.

Black v. Smith Protective Services · No. 01-14-00969-CV · Decided February 27, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a letter filed in an appeal in the First Court of Appeals of Texas concerning the reporter's record. Appellant's counsel states that no reporter's record was requested because the appeal arose from a summary judgment and no testimony was taken.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Court of Appeals of Texas, First District, Houston
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	February 27, 2015
DOCKET	01-14-00969-CV
DISPOSITION	other
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Appeal from a summary judgment; the filing indicates that no reporter's record was requested because no testimony was taken.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	unknown
PARTIES	Bryan Black v. Smith Protective Services, Inc.

TOPICS

summary judgment appellate procedure civil procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

civil procedure appellate procedure

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The document contains no substantive factual background concerning the underlying dispute. It states only that the appeal arose from a summary judgment and that no testimony was taken.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The matter was appealed from a summary judgment entered in trial court cause number 2012-56941. The document states that no reporter's record exists because no testimony was taken.

DISPOSITION

other

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/federal/court-of-appeals-of-texas-first-district-houston/2015/bryan-black-v-smith-protective-services-inc-v3vn5wi7>