QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the temporary restraining order should be converted into a preliminary injunction.
2. Whether Plaintiff was entitled to continued injunctive relief under the preliminary-injunction standard.

HOLDINGS

1. The temporary restraining order should be converted into a preliminary injunction and remain in effect until further order of the court.
2. Plaintiff's motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction was granted, and Defendant remained enjoined as detailed in the prior TRO.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“As set forth in the Court’s order granting the TRO, Dkt. 6, the Court finds that all factors necessary for the issuance of a preliminary injunction still weigh in Plaintiff’s favor.”

“The Temporary Restraining Order, Dkt. 6, is CONVERTED into a preliminary injunction and remains in effect until further ordered.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

SOS Mobile Medical Care, LLC filed a complaint against Jason Gulledge and sought emergency injunctive relief. The court initially granted an ex parte temporary restraining order, and Plaintiff properly served Gulledge. Gulledge did not appear or otherwise participate, and the court found that the factors supporting injunctive relief continued to favor Plaintiff.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed its Complaint and motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction on December 15, 2025. The court granted ex parte injunctive relief on December 16, 2025, Plaintiff served Defendant on December 19, 2025, and Defendant neither appeared nor took action. After a hearing scheduled for January 6, 2026, the court orally ruled that the TRO would be converted into a preliminary injunction and entered this written order.

OPINION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA TAMPA DIVISION
SOS MOBILE MEDICAL CARE, LLC, a Florida Limited Liability Company, Plaintiff, v. Case
No: 8:25-cv-03422-WFJ-CPT JASON GULLEDGE, an Individual, Defendant. ORDER Before the Court is Plaintiff SOS Mobile Medical Care, LLC's ("SMMC") Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction.

Dkt. 4. The Court has granted Plaintiff's motion as to the temporary restraining order. Dkt. 6. This Order follows and grants Plaintiff's motion as to the preliminary injunction. On December 15, 2025, Plaintiff filed its Complaint along with the instant motion. Dkts. 1, 4. Upon careful consideration of the Complaint and evidence provided, the Court granted ex parte injunctive relief on December 16, 2025.

Dkt. 6. Plaintiff properly served Defendant Jason Gullledge on December 19, 2025. Dkt. 9. Defendant, however, has not taken any action nor appeared in this matter. The Court set a hearing on the TRO, which was rescheduled to January 6, 2026. Defendant failed to appear, and the Court orally ruled that the TRO would be converted into a preliminary injunction, with a formal written order to follow.

Dkts. 7, 10, 11, 13. As set forth in the Court's order granting the TRO, Dkt. 6, the Court finds that all factors necessary for the issuance of a preliminary injunction still weigh in Plaintiff's favor. See Schiavo ex rel. Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225–26 (11th Cir. 2005) (holding that the standard to obtain a preliminary injunction is the same as to obtain a temporary restraining order).

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED: 1. Plaintiff SOS Mobile Medical Care, LLC's Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction, Dkt. 4, is GRANTED. a. The Temporary Restraining Order, Dkt. 6, is CONVERTED into a preliminary injunction and remains in effect until further ordered. b. Defendant Jason Gullledge remains ENJOINED, as detailed in the Temporary Restraining Order.

Dkt. 6. 2. Plaintiff is DIRECTED to maintain its previously posted bond of $10,000 until further ordered by the Court. DONE AND ORDERED in Tampa, Florida, on January 7, 2026. /s/ William F. Jung WILLIAM F. JUNG UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE COPIES FURNISHED TO: Counsel of Record
