QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. What standard of review applies to a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation when no party files a timely objection?
2. Whether the Commissioner's final decision denying Jones's applications for Supplemental Security Income and disability insurance benefits should be affirmed.

HOLDINGS

1. When no timely objection is filed, the district court need only determine whether there is clear error on the face of the record before accepting the magistrate judge's recommendation.
2. The Commissioner's final decision denying Jones's applications for Supplemental Security Income and disability benefits is affirmed.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“when no timely objection is filed, the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.”

“It does not appear that Congress intended to require district court review of magistrate judge’s factual or legal conclusions, under a de novo or any other standard, when neither party objects to these findings.” (150)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Rashawna R. Jones applied for Supplemental Security Income and disability insurance benefits. The Commissioner denied the applications, and Jones challenged that final decision in the district court. The magistrate judge recommended affirmance, and no party objected.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Magistrate Judge James E. Grimes issued a Report and Recommendation recommending that the Commissioner's final decision be affirmed. Because neither party filed an objection, the district court reviewed the recommendation for clear error on the face of the record, found none, adopted the recommendation, and affirmed the Commissioner's decision.

DISPOSITION
