QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether plaintiffs' motions to seal should be granted when they relied primarily on a stipulated protective order.
- Whether the documents should remain temporarily under seal while the defendants' later-filed motions to seal are considered.

HOLDINGS

1. A stipulated protective order alone does not justify sealing court records.
2. The Clerk's Office was directed to maintain ECF Nos. 85 and 88 under seal until further order while the court considers defendants' motions to seal.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Stipulated protective orders alone do not justify sealing court records.” (lines 15-16)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs submitted exhibits concerning missing discovery and an October 2025 joint status report and sought to keep those exhibits sealed. Plaintiffs relied on a stipulated protective order as the basis for sealing or redacting the documents, while defendants subsequently sought sealing of the same materials.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiffs filed motions to seal at ECF Nos. 84 and 87, relying on the parties' stipulated protective order. Defendants did not respond to those motions but filed their own motions to seal the same documents at ECF Nos. 90 and 95. The court denied plaintiffs' motions without prejudice and directed the Clerk's Office to maintain the identified exhibits under seal pending resolution of defendants' motions.
