PRACTICE AREAS

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the court should dismiss the appeal on appellants' unopposed motion under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.1(a)(1).
2. How appellate costs should be allocated upon dismissal.

HOLDINGS

1. An appeal may be dismissed on the appellants' unopposed motion when dismissal would not prevent appellees from seeking relief to which they would otherwise be entitled; the court granted the motion and dismissed the appeal.
2. Costs of the appeal are taxed against appellants.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion contains no substantive factual background concerning the underlying dispute. The relevant procedural fact is that appellants filed an unopposed motion seeking dismissal of the appeal, and appellees did not contend that dismissal would prevent them from seeking otherwise available relief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the 150th Judicial District Court of Bexar County, Texas, trial court cause number 2024-CI-26721. The appellants moved to dismiss the appeal, the appellees did not oppose dismissal, and the court of appeals granted the motion and dismissed the appeal, taxing appellate costs against appellants.
