

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Richard D. Casity v. Monivirin Son, et al.

Casity v. Son · No. 2:22-cv-1983 TLN AC P · Decided March 8, 2023

SUMMARY

A magistrate judge recommends dismissal without prejudice because the plaintiff failed to file a properly completed in forma pauperis application or pay the filing fee after multiple opportunities to do so. The findings and recommendations advise the plaintiff of the fourteen-day period for filing objections and the potential waiver of appellate rights.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the action should be dismissed without prejudice because plaintiff failed, after repeated orders, to submit a properly completed in forma pauperis application or pay the filing fee.

HOLDINGS

1. The magistrate judge recommended that the action be dismissed without prejudice because plaintiff failed to file a properly completed in forma pauperis application or pay the filing fee after being given multiple opportunities to do so.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY RECOMMENDED that this action be DISMISSED without prejudice.” (1)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff was given three opportunities to file a properly completed in forma pauperis application, and each order included a new application form. After the final thirty-day deadline expired, plaintiff had neither filed a proper application nor paid the filing fee.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff was ordered three times to submit a properly completed in forma pauperis application, most recently on January 24, 2023, with thirty days to comply. The deadline expired without a proper application or payment of the filing fee. The magistrate judge recommended dismissal without prejudice and advised plaintiff of the procedure and deadline for objections under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).
