

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, FOURTH DISTRICT, SAN ANTONIO

Ignacio Valenzuela v. Cruz Rodriguez

No. 04-16-00426-CV · No. 04-16-00426-CV · Decided August 11, 2016

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

FILE COPY Fourth Court of Appeals San Antonio, Texas August 11, 2016 No. 04-16-00426-CV Ignacio VALENZUELA, Appellant v. Cruz RODRIGUEZ, Appellee From the County Court At Law No. 10, Bexar County, Texas Trial Court No. 2015CV05285 Honorable Karen Crouch, Judge Presiding ORDER This court has determined this appeal is appropriate for referral to alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

4TH TEX. APP. (SAN ANTONIO) LOC. R. 2. All further communications with this court by the parties regarding ADR shall be directed to the clerk of the court. All parties are ORDERED to respond in writing by August 25, 2016 stating: (1) any objection to mediation; and (2) whether the parties agree on the selection of a mediator and, if so, the name and address of the mediator of their choice.

If the parties agree to mediation and select a mediator, this court will issue an order suspending all appellate deadlines for forty-five days to allow the parties to concentrate on the scheduling and completion of the mediation process. Is it so ORDERED on August 11, 2016.

_____ Marialyn Barnard, Justice IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said court on August 11, 2016.

_____ Keith E. Hottle, Clerk
