SUMMARY

The Appellate Division, Second Department, affirmed an order denying All Faiths Cemetery's motion to dismiss an amended complaint under CPLR 3211(a)(4) based on a related pending proceeding. The court held that although the actions involved substantially identical parties and arose from the same alleged wrong, they were not sufficiently similar and did not seek the same or substantially the same relief.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the amended complaint should be dismissed under CPLR 3211(a)(4) because of the pending 2022 proceeding involving substantially the same parties and alleged wrong.
2. Whether the relief sought in the present action was the same or substantially the same as the relief sought in the 2022 proceeding.

HOLDINGS

1. Dismissal was not warranted because, although there was a substantial identity of the parties and both matters arose from the same alleged wrong, the two proceedings were not sufficiently similar and sought relief that was not the same or substantially the same.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(4), a court has broad discretion in determining whether an action should be dismissed based upon another pending action where there is a substantial identity of the parties, the two actions are sufficiently similar, and the relief sought is substantially the same” ([*1])

“It is not necessary that the precise legal theories presented in the first action also be presented in the second action so long as the relief . . . is the same or substantially the same” ([*1])

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The plaintiffs alleged that All Faiths Cemetery unlawfully disinterred their father's remains and reinterred them in an adjacent grave at the request of one of the decedent's children. The child allegedly did not notify the plaintiffs or obtain their consent. The plaintiffs brought a 2022 proceeding seeking, among other relief, an order directing return of the remains to the original grave, and later commenced this action seeking, among other relief, damages for gross negligence.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The plaintiffs commenced an action in January 2024 seeking, among other relief, damages for gross negligence arising from the alleged disinterment and reinterment of their father's remains. The defendant moved to dismiss under CPLR 3211(a)(4), asserting that the action was barred by a proceeding commenced in July 2022 under N-PCL 1510(e). The Supreme Court, Queens County, denied the motion, and the Appellate Division affirmed insofar as appealed from.

DISPOSITION

affirmed
