OPINION

PER CURIAM.

TEXAS COURT OF APPEALS, THIRD DISTRICT, AT AUSTIN NO. 03-25-00998-CV In re Veronica Renee Youngblood ORIGINAL PROCEEDING FROM BELL COUNTY MEMORANDUM OPINION In this suit affecting the parent–child relationship (SAPCR), relator Veronica Renee Youngblood has filed a petition for writ of mandamus seeking relief from orders the trial court purportedly rendered without jurisdiction.¹ A party seeking mandamus relief has the burden of providing this Court with a sufficient record to establish her right to such relief.

See Walker v. Packer, 827 S.W.2d 833, 837 (Tex. 1992); see Tex. R. App. P. 52.3(k)(1)(A) (requiring appendix to petition for writ of mandamus to include certified or sworn copy of order complained of and other documents showing matter complained of); 52.7(a) (providing that mandamus record must contain, among other things, certified or sworn copy of every document that is material to relator’s claim and that was filed in underlying proceeding).

¹ Youngblood contends that the trial court rendered “modifications” and other SAPCR orders “affecting conservatorship, possession, and enforcement” without jurisdiction to do so because a different trial court had continuing exclusive jurisdiction over the SAPCR under the Family Code.

The appendix and record do not meet the requirements of Rules 52.3 and 52.7; therefore, this Court lacks a record sufficient to assess the right to mandamus relief. We accordingly deny relief. See Tex. R. App. P. 52.8(a). _____ Karin Crump, Justice Before Chief Justice Byrne, Justices Crump and Ellis Filed: December 18, 2025 2
