QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. What duration was appropriate for the Rule 35 independent medical examination?
2. What body areas should be excluded from the scope of the physical examination?

HOLDINGS

1. The independent medical examination of Plaintiff by Dr. Rubenstein was limited to no more than four hours.
2. The examination was limited to exclude examination of the genital, anal, and rectal areas.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“The length of Dr. Rubenstein’s Independent Medical Examination (“IME”) shall be no longer than four hours. Further, the scope of the examination shall be limited to exclude examination of the following specific body parts: genital, anal, or rectal areas.” (2)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The parties disputed the permissible length and scope of Plaintiff's independent medical examination, scheduled for February 27, 2025. The examination was to be conducted by Dr. Rubenstein under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 35. Discovery was scheduled to close on February 28, 2025.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff filed the complaint in San Joaquin County Superior Court, and Defendant removed the action to the Eastern District of California. The parties filed a re-notice of motion and joint statement concerning the scheduled independent medical examination. The court granted the amended discovery-dispute request and imposed limits on the examination.
