QUESTIONS PRESENTED

- Whether the State's motion for en banc reconsideration should be considered after the panel issued a different opinion and judgment.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The document contains no substantive facts concerning the underlying criminal case. It addresses only the procedural status of the State's motion for en banc reconsideration.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The appeal arose from the 198th Judicial District Court of Kerr County, Texas, trial court cause number B19-346. On October 19, 2022, a panel consisting of Justices Chapa, Watkins, and Rodriguez issued a new opinion and judgment. Because the panel had issued a different opinion, the court denied the State's motion for en banc reconsideration as moot.
