

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Phillips v. Lancaster County Corrections, County Jail; Boris Kapor

Phillips · No. 8:25-cv-00691 · Decided February 20, 2026

OPINION

Phillips

PER CURIAM.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

IAN JON PHILLIPS,

Plaintiff, 8:25CV691 vs.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

LANCASTER COUNTY

CORRECTIONS, County Jail; and BORIS KAPOR, Adult Detention Officer (correctional officer); Defendants. This matter is before the Court for case management. The Prison Litigation Reform Act requires an imprisoned civil plaintiff to pay the Court's entire filing fee, either at the outset when filing the complaint, or in installments if the Court grants leave to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"). In re Tyler, 110 F.3d 528, 529–30 (8th Cir. 1997); Jackson v. N.P. Dodge Realty Co., 173 F. Supp. 2d 951 (D. Neb. 2001). On January 13, 2026, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion seeking leave to proceed IFP and ordered him to pay an initial partial filing fee in the amount of $5.80 within 30 days. See Filing No. 8. To date, Plaintiff has not paid the initial partial filing fee or asked for an extension of time in which to do so. Accordingly, the Court will require Plaintiff to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for his failure to pay the initial partial filing fee. If Plaintiff's failure to pay by the Court's deadline was caused by prison officials' failure to adhere to his request to remit payment using funds from his account or other circumstances beyond his control, his failure to pay within the time ordered by the Court will be excused. Absent a sufficient response, the case will be subject to dismissal. See Taylor v. Cassady, 570 Fed. App'x. 632 (8th Cir. 2014) (holding district court abused its discretion by dismissing case without first taking steps to determine whether prisoner-plaintiffs failure to pay the initial partial filing fee "was caused by circumstances beyond his control, such as prison officials' failure to adhere to his request to remit payment using funds from his account"). IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiff will have 30 days to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for failure to pay the initial partial filing fee. In the absence of cause shown, this case will be dismissed without prejudice and without further notice.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to set a pro se case management deadline in this case using the following text: March 23, 2026: check for response to show cause order. Dated this 20th day of February, 2026. B jee CO ART bo n M. Gerrard enior United States District Judge
