QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the appeal should be referred to mediation and abated for sixty days.
2. What procedures and obligations would govern the parties and mediator during the ordered mediation.

HOLDINGS

1. The court ordered the appeal abated for sixty days and referred the underlying dispute to mediation.
2. The parties or their representatives with full settlement authority, accompanied by counsel of record, were required to attend mediation, report the result to the court within forty-eight hours after completion, and file an appropriate dispositive or time-extension motion if mediation resolved the appeal.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The opinion provides no substantive facts concerning the underlying dispute. The court's order concerns only the procedural management of the appeal and referral of the dispute to mediation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Ijeoma Ogochukwu Ononenyi appealed from the 280th District Court of Harris County in Trial Court Cause No. 2021-80238. The Fourteenth Court of Appeals determined that the case was appropriate for mediation, referred the dispute to mediation, suspended the appellate timetable, and abated the appeal for sixty days.

REMAND INSTRUCTIONS

The appeal was abated, treated as a closed case, and removed from the court's active docket for sixty days. Mediation was to occur within sixty days, after which the appeal would be reinstated unless the parties filed a motion to dismiss, another dispositive motion, or a motion seeking additional time. The parties could also seek reinstatement, extension of the abatement period, or dismissal at specified times.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

Order filed June 9, 2022 In The Fourteenth Court of Appeals _____ NO. 14-22-00099-CV _____ IJEOMA OGOCHUKWU ONONENYI, Appellant V. NNAEMKA JOSHUA NWANKWO, Appellee On Appeal from the 280th District Court Harris County, Texas Trial Court Cause No. 2021-80238 ABATEMENT ORDER We have determined that this case is appropriate for referral to mediation, an alternative dispute resolution process.

See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code §§ 154.021—.073. Mediation is a forum in which an impartial person, the mediator, facilitates communication between parties to promote reconciliation or settlement. Id. § 154.023(a). Any communication relating to the subject matter of the appeal made by a participant in the mediation proceeding is confidential. See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem.

Code § 154.053. After mediation, the parties shall advise the court whether the case settled, or whether any further negotiation efforts are planned. The court ORDERS the appeal ABATED for a period of sixty days and refers the underlying dispute to mediation. Any party may file a written objection 1 to this order with the clerk of this court within 10 days of the date of this order.

See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 154.022. If this court finds that there is a reasonable basis for the objection, the objection shall be sustained and the appeal reinstated on this court's active docket. See id. The court ORDERS that the mediation be held within 60 days of the date of this order.

The court ORDERS that all parties or their representatives with full settlement authority shall attend the mediation process, with their counsel of record. The court FURTHER ORDERS that within 48 hours of completion of the mediation, the parties shall advise the court in writing whether the case settled. If mediation fully resolves the issues in the case, the court ORDERS the parties to file a motion to dismiss the appeal, other dispositive motion, or a motion for additional time to file the dispositive motion, within 10 days of the conclusion of the mediation.

The court ORDERS the appellate timetable in this case suspended for 60 days from the date of this order. The appeal is ABATED, treated as a closed case, and removed from this court's active docket for a period of sixty days.

The appeal will be reinstated on this court's active docket after sixty days. Any party may file a motion stating grounds for reinstating the appeal before the end of the sixty-day period. Any party may also file a motion to dismiss the appeal or other dispositive motion at any time. Any party may file a motion to extend the abatement period for completion of mediation or to finalize a settlement.

PER CURIAM Panel Consists of Justices Bourliot, Hassan, and Wilson. 2 RULES FOR MEDIATION i. Definition of Mediation. Mediation is a process under which an impartial person, the mediator, facilitates communication between the parties to promote reconciliation, settlement or understanding among them.

The mediator may suggest ways of resolving the disputes, but may not impose his own judgment on the issues for that of the parties. ii. Agreement of Parties. Whenever the parties have agreed to mediation they shall be deemed to have made these rules, as amended and in effect as of the date of the submission of the dispute, a part of their agreement to mediate. iii.

Consent to Mediator. The parties consent to the appointment of the individual named as mediator in their case. The Mediator shall act as an advocate for resolution and shall use his best efforts to assist the parties in reaching a mutually acceptable settlement. iv. Conditions Precedent to Serving As Mediator.

The mediator shall not serve as a mediator in any dispute in which he has any financial or personal interest in the result of the mediation. Prior to accepting an appointment, the Mediator shall disclose any circumstances likely to create a presumption of bias or prevent a prompt meeting with the parties.

In the event that the parties disagree as to whether the Mediator shall serve, the Mediator shall not serve. v. Authority of the Mediator. The Mediator does not have the authority to decide any issue for the parties, but will attempt to facilitate the voluntary resolution of the dispute by the parties.

The Mediator is authorized to conduct joint and separate meetings with the parties and to offer suggestions to assist the parties achieve settlement. If necessary, the Mediator may also obtain expert advice concerning technical aspects of the dispute, provided that the parties agree and assume the expenses of obtaining such advice. Arrangements for obtaining such advice shall be made by the Mediator or the parties, as the Mediator shall determine. vi.

Commitment to Participate in Good Faith. While no one is asked to commit to settle their case in advance of mediation, all parties commit to participate in the proceedings in good faith with the intention to settle, if at all possible. vii. Parties Responsible for Negotiating Their Own Settlement.

The parties understand that the Mediator will not and cannot impose a settlement in their case and agree that they are responsible for negotiating a settlement acceptable to them. The Mediator, as an advocate for settlement, will use every effort to facilitate the negotiations of the parties.

The Mediator does not warrant or represent that settlement will result from the mediation process. viii. Authority of Representatives. PARTY REPRESENTATIVES MUST HAVE AUTHORITY TO SETTLE AND ALL PERSONS NECESSARY TO THE DECISION TO SETTLE SHALL BE PRESENT.

The names and addresses of such persons shall be communicated in writing to all parties and to the Mediator prior to the mediation. ix. Time and Place of Mediation. The Mediator shall fix the time of each mediation session.

The mediation shall be held at the office of the Mediator, or at any other convenient location agreeable to the Mediator and the parties, as the Mediator shall determine. x. Identification of Matters in Dispute. Prior to the first scheduled mediation session, each party shall provide the Mediator with confidential information in the form requested by the Mediator setting forth its position with regard to the issues that need to be resolved.

At or before the first session, the parties will be expected to produce all information reasonably required for the Mediator to understand the issues presented. The Mediator may require any party to supplement such information. xi. Privacy. Mediation sessions are private.

The parties and their representatives may attend mediation sessions. Other persons may attend only with the permission of the parties and with the consent of the Mediator. xii. Confidentiality. Confidential information disclosed to a Mediator by the parties or by witnesses in the course of the mediation shall not be divulged by the Mediator. All records, reports or other documents received by a mediator while serving in that capacity shall be confidential.

The Mediator shall not be compelled to divulge such records or to testify in regard to the mediation in any adversary proceeding or judicial forum. Any party that violates this agreement shall pay all fees and expenses of the Mediator and other parties, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred in opposing the efforts to compel testimony or records from the Mediator.

The parties shall maintain the confidentiality of the mediation and shall not relay on, or introduce as evidence in any arbitral, judicial, or other proceeding: a) views expressed or suggestions made by another party with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute; b) admissions made by another party in the course of the mediation proceedings; c) proposals made or views expressed by the Mediator; or d) the fact that another party had or had not indicated willingness to accept a proposal for settlement made by the Mediator. xiii.

No Stenographic Record. There shall be no stenographic record made of the mediation process. xiv. No Service of Process at or near the Site of the Mediation Session. No subpoenas, summons, complaints, citations, writs or other process may be served upon any person at or near the site of any mediation session upon any person entering, attending or leaving the session. xv.

Termination of Mediation. The mediation shall be terminated: a) by the execution of a settlement agreement by the parties; b) by declaration of the Mediator to the effect that further efforts at mediation are no longer worthwhile; or c) after the completion of one full mediation session, by a written declaration of a party or parties to the effect that the mediation proceedings are terminated. xvi.

Exclusion of Liability. The Mediator is not a necessary or proper party in judicial proceedings relating to the mediation. Neither Mediator nor any law firm employing Mediator shall be liable to any party for any act or omission in connection with any mediation conducted under these rules. 4 xvii. Interpretation and Application of Rules.

The Mediator shall interpret and apply these rules. xviii. Fees and Expenses. The Mediator's daily fee shall be agreed upon prior to mediation and shall be paid in advance of each mediation day. The expenses of witnesses for either side shall be paid by the party producing such witnesses. All other expenses of the mediation, including fees and expenses of the Mediator, and the expenses of any witness and the cost of any proofs or expert advice produced at the direct request of the Mediator, shall be borne equally by the parties unless they agree otherwise.
